

Bruce Trail club invites residents to take a hike

The Toronto Bruce Trail Club is inviting residents who are up for a challenge to come to its two-day end-to-end hike of the Bruce Trail tomorrow and Sunday.

The walk will cover the 51-km Toronto section of the beloved trail, which runs from Kelso Conservation Area to just north of Terra Cotta.

Organizers say this portion of the trail includes some of the most scenic parts.

Hikers are asked to meet at 7:45 a.m. each day at the parking lot below the school in Limehouse — on County Road 43, south from Hwy. 7, west of Trafalgar Road, just west of Georgetown.

A bus leaving at 8 a.m. each day will transport hikers to the trail.

The cost is $17, which includes transportation, badges and refreshments. Hikers should bring their own lunches and water.

For more information, call (416) 763-9061 or visit www.torontobruceclub.org.
