

Web site set up in ongoing bid to establish leash-free dog park

Local residents who would like to see a leash-free dog park established in Milton as soon as possible can now sign a petition on-line for the cause.

The petition, started by Milton resident Sheri Lewis in August, has garnered about 200 signatures on paper and 100 on-line at the newly-created Web site, www.milton-leashfree.com.

"It's going very well," said Ms Lewis. "We need as many supporters as we can get."

The petition calls on the Town to speed up the opening of a local leash-free park.

Ms Lewis and some local volunteers have formed a group that's known as Residents for Off-Leash Opportunities, or ROLO. The Web site details ROLO's cause and has a photo gallery of local dogs.

The group will meet with Town Director of Community Services Jennifer Reynolds Tuesday to discuss leash-free park prospects in Milton.

Ms Lewis said one suggestion she may make is to start using the Milton Fair Grounds as a dog park on a timeshare basis, meaning whenever it's not being used for other events.

She said she could also suggest putting money collected from dog licences toward the creation of a park, noting Milton charges about $40 per licence while she knows of other municipalities where they cost $20 to $25.

The Town is planning for a leash-free dog park and a potential location for one has been identified in the new development area on Fourth Line, but those plans are still a couple of years away.

Our customers tell us there's a connection between looking successful and being successful. They say it's a big reason they lease Peterbilt trucks.

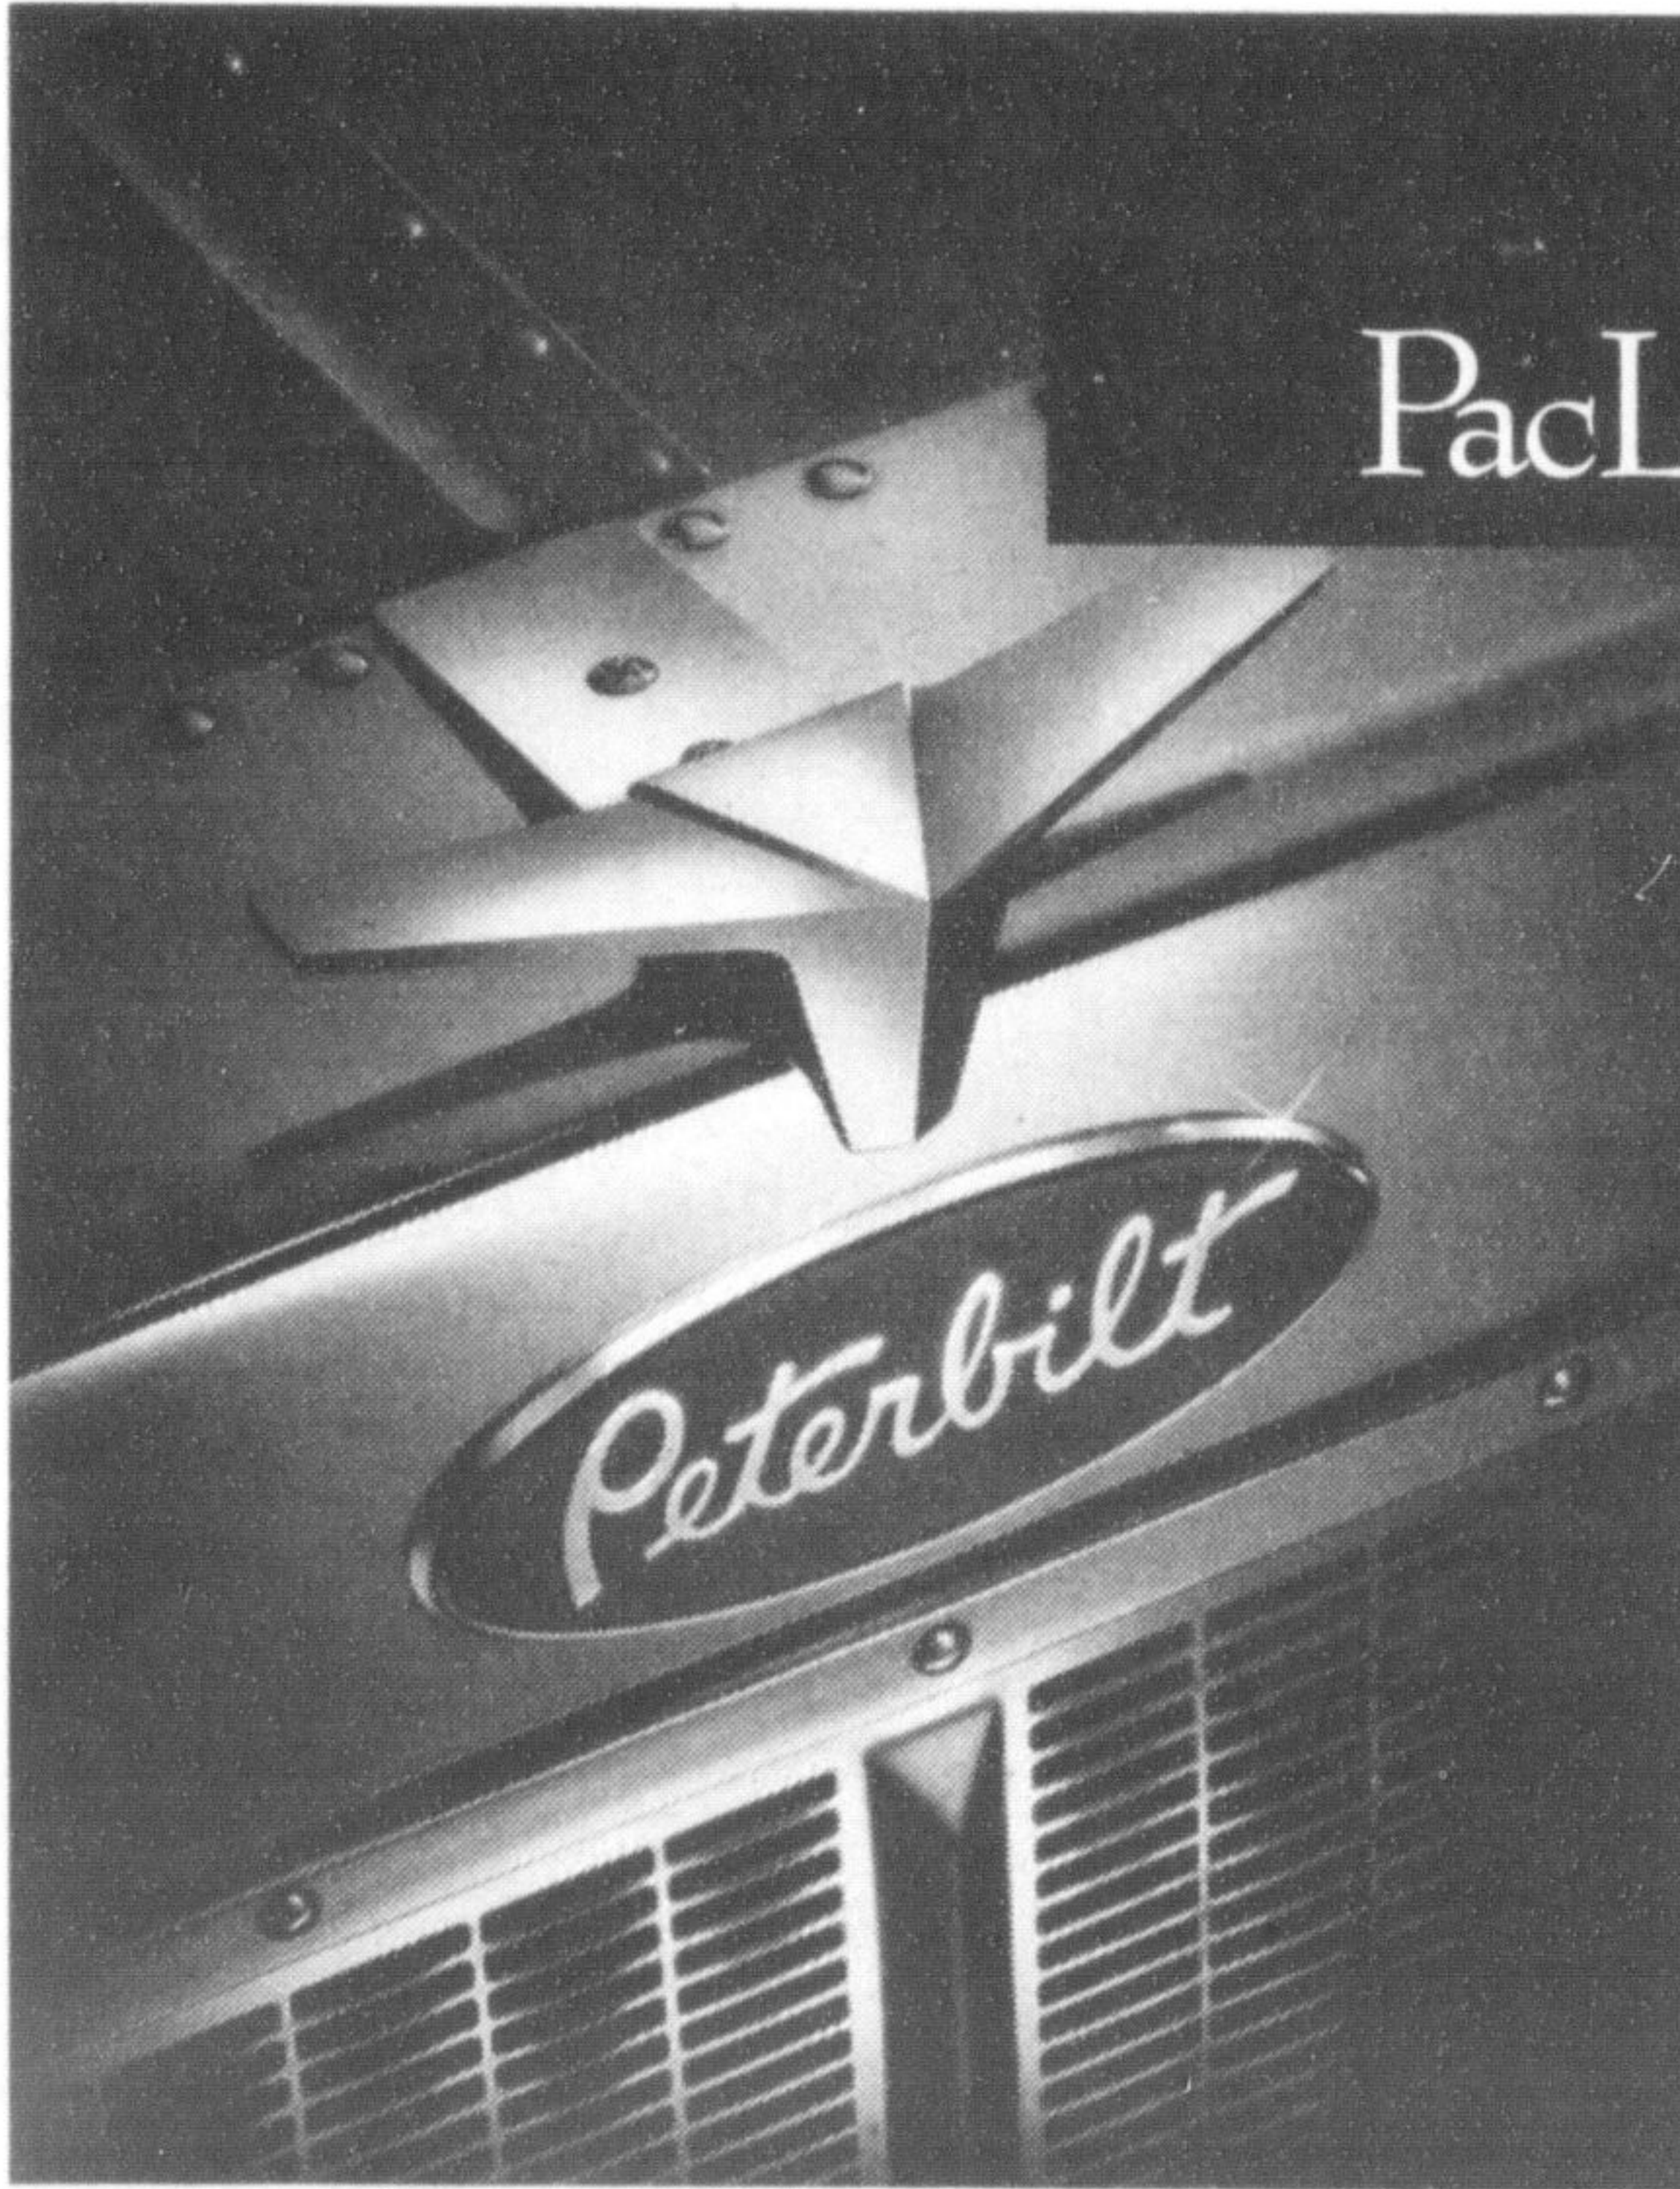

PacLease. Now You're Connected.

They also like Peterbilt's reliability, driver comfort and the fact that PacLease can help them develop the right spec to fit their exact needs. As a subsidiary of PACCAR, the company that builds Peterbilt trucks, it's no surprise that our 170 independently owned locations across North America lease and maintain more Peterbilt trucks than anyone else.
