Dermott fuels win for minor bantams

Rep Hockey

Scott Dermott capped a four-point night with a last-minute empty netter to ice a 4-2 Sunday night road win over Stoney Creek for Milton's AA minor bantams.

Dermott assisted on the other three goals, the first scored by Jeff Clarke, who finished the evening with three points. Also lighting the lamp were Brendan Farrell and Vikram Kalia, who extended his goal-scoring streak to four games.

Trevor Rae-Hunt turned back two dozen shots in the narrow victory, which evened the Winterhawks' record to 2-2-1.

Sunday's win followed a 3-2 loss to Flamborough October 16, which capped a hectic three-games-in-four-days stretch. Brandon Grant was solid in net, while goals came from Kalia and Sachin Ghai.

The AA minor bantams will look to make it two-in-a-row tonight at Milton Sports Centre against Georgetown. Game time is 8 p.m.

AE atoms split

Milton's AE atoms wound up on either end of back-to-back 2-1 decisions this past weekend, which pushed their season record to 3-2.

The Winterhawks edged host Arthur Friday evening, thanks in large part to Ryan Tanason, who sank the first goal and then helped set up Owen Cutrara's winning tally.

Also standing out with two assists was Tyler DeMeo, while Tristan Kivac was sharp between the pipes.

Kyle Waters was the lone marksman in the following night's loss to Elora at Milton Sports Centre. Drawing the assists were Robert Manning and Sean Walter. Mack Mindenall came up with some key saves to keep his team within striking distance.

The AE atoms were back in action last night in Caledon and travel to Elora Saturday. They return to Milton Sports Centre Sunday at 3:30 p.m. to take on Caledon.

Minor atoms edged

The return of injured goalie Nicholas Hoffman and some stellar defense by Matthew Gooding helped Milton's AA minor atoms keep things awfully tight in Stoney Creek Saturday.

A 5-3 defeat to the high-octane Warriors could certainly be considered a moral victory — especially since goal number five was a last-minute empty netter.

Highlighting the night with two assists each were Aidan Atkinson and Sam Robson, while Jacob Quinn, Sean Walters and Graydon Wessinger did the scoring. Marcus Kotyk picked up a single helper.

Now 3-3, the AA minor atoms return to Milton Sports Centre Saturday at 4 p.m. to do battle with Burlington.
