

Your Invitation To Worship

If not for Grace, where would I be?

Have you wronged a friend of family member? Have you ever yearned for freedom from yesterday's miscues? Do you need forgiveness?

The debt of our sins is more costly than we can pay. The gift of God's forgiveness is worth more than we can imagine.

Do you need Divine Forgiveness? Have you ever come face to face with God, owned your sin, and then asked Him for release? If you have not already done so, do it! Forgiveness is our deepest need and God's highest achievement. Once you experience God's forgiveness, you'll be better equipped to forgive others.

C.S. Lewis has said, "To be a Christian means to forgive the inexcusable, because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you."

Ernest Hemingway loved to write about the country of Spain. In his short story, The Capital of the World, the prolific writer tells of a typical father and his son, Paco, who had stopped talking to one another. Things got so bad that Paco left home in a fit of rage.

After several years, the father wanted to mend the relationship and so he looked everywhere for his son. When he came to the capital city of Madrid, he decided to go to the newspaper office and take out a big ad in the newspaper to try to get his son's attention. The text in the ad reads like this:

"Paco, please meet me at 12 noon tomorrow in front of the newspaper office—all is forgiven. I love you. Your father."

Now, Paco was a common name in Spain—how common we do not know. However, the next day at 12 noon, there were 800 men, young and old alike, named Paco standing in front of the newspaper building!

I suspect that we all know of a Paco in need for forgiveness—someone who is tired of living with a haunting past. We may hold the keys to that person's emotional freedom. Are we prepared to release them from their place of guilt?

It is our choice! But in affording someone else their freedom, we can be set free ourselves!

Give the gift of forgiveness. Stop living with the venom of an unforgiving spirit coursing through your veins. Don't let your grudges structure your outlook on life. Cancel debts today. Restore friendships. Be a grace-giver. You won't regret it!

To learn more about Divine forgiveness and your ability to forgive others, visit a local church this week. Service times and locations are published in the Religious Directory below to help you!
