

Your Invitation To Worship

I Don't Like Funerals

A good friend and a Canadian veteran of World War Two, Walter Pynkoski, a Milton resident died recently after a valiant battle with a variety of heart ailments. His funeral was last week. Friends and family grieved his passing. Congregation members honoured him.

Sylvia Polla, Walter's daughter, and her family were particularly heartbroken. Sylvia had been by her dad's side when he took his last breath. She took the time to comfort him, to pray with him, to be with him - determined that Walter did not have to die alone. She took the time to show her dad that she cared - may God bless her for it!

Let me encourage you to make room in your busy schedule for your loved ones. In days gone by, families would eat together, play together, worship together ... now it seems that most live separate lives! Find a moment today to let someone know that they are special!

*Take the Time
Why don't people stop and think
Why don't they ever see...
That one of life's most perfect gifts
Is theirs each day, for free?*

*Take the time to watch a sunset
Or walk through a summer shower
There's nothing so important
That it cannot wait an hour ...
Take the time to say a prayer
Make love or make a friend,
Play with children, read a book
The learning shouldn't end.
Take time to say "I'm sorry"
And learn how to forgive.
Let justice, love and loyalty
Dictate the way you live.
Take the time and use it well
Or one day when you wake;*

*You'll find that when you need it most
There's no time left to take!!*
