

We will remember them

Remembrance Day services were held on Friday at Evergreen Cemetery and at Victoria Park, while a parade and service were held Sunday at the cenotaph. Clockwise from left: Retired Navy Commander Peter Berry gets a thank you from granddaughter Jillian Berry, 3, at the conclusion of Sunday's service. Helen Varley (left) is escorted by the Legion Branch #136's Laurie MacNab on the way to laying the wreath for the Silver Cross Mother and Legion respectively. Veterans take a moment to remember the fallen at Friday's ceremony at Evergreen Cemetery. Parade Marshal David McNeill gives a salute at Friday's service. J.M. Denyes Public School students and staff gather for their Remembrance Day observance at the Victoria Park Cenotaph Friday.

Photos by SABRINA BYRNES and GRAHAM PAINE

Submitted photo

