

Man wanted after indecent acts committed at Wal-Mart store

Police are asking for the public's help in locating a man who engaged in indecent behaviour outside Wal-Mart and possibly also in Georgetown Tuesday.

Police said the Milton incident occurred at about 11 a.m. An Acton woman was eating with her four-year-old daughter at the McDonald's restaurant in the store when she saw through the window a man in his car with no pants on. His driver's side door was open.

She called 911, but the suspect was gone when police arrived.

Police said he might be the same man who committed a similar act in Georgetown just a half hour earlier. The man in that incident was described as white, 30 to 40 years old, with dark brown hair. He was reportedly driving a black 1999 or 2000 Grand Am.

Anyone with information is asked to call Halton Regional Police at (905) 825-4777 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (1-800-222-8477).

Suspect sought by police

Police are looking for a suspect after a woman scared away a youth who had smashed her side basement window in hopes of gaining entry.

Police said the incident occurred

Police Blotter

November 9 at about 4:30 p.m. at a Beaver Court home.

The woman yelled and the youth fled on foot to a neighbour's backyard.

Police are looking for a clean-shaven young man with a medium build. He was wearing a dark blue hooded sweatshirt, dark pants, dark shoes, and had a two-tone blue knapsack.

Firearms stolen

A number of firearms were stolen from a No. 15 Sideroad home during a break-in November 10.

Police said unknown suspects entered the home sometime during the day by forcing open the basement window.

Jewelry valued at $2,500 plus seven long guns with an undetermined value were stolen.

Fire started at Home Depot

The Home Depot store under construction at Thompson Road and Steeles Avenue was targeted for vandalism overnight November 7.

Police said unknown suspects entered an unlocked storage area at the rear of the building and tipped over a pail of paint, which was splashed on the wall.

Gas was then poured on the ground and lit on fire. The Milton Fire Department responded, and damage was contained to the area. There were no injuries.

Woman charged with drunk driving

A vehicle drifting into oncoming traffic caught the attention of police, who laid impaired driving charges last week.

Police said a vehicle was pulled over November 8 at about 9 p.m. in the area of Bronte Street and Ann Boulevard. It had been driving slowly with no headlights.

A 49-year-old Sunnyvale Crescent woman has been charged with impaired driving and having over the legal limit of alcohol in her blood.

Boating items stolen

Fishing equipment was stolen from a Robert Street home sometime between November 6 and last Friday.

Police said the equipment was being stored in a boat parked in the backyard of the home. The estimated value of the stolen property is $4,500.
