Free transit rides offered Wednesdays until Christmas

Milton Transit is doing its part to ease the stress of the holiday season by making transit to shopping more affordable. This Wednesday and December 21, it will offer free rides on all five bus routes from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Children under the age of six always ride free, and strollers can be folded up and brought on the bus.

Service will continue as usual for the most part of the holiday season, except December 26, when no buses will be running. Accessible Transit Service, for people with physical challenges, will be cancelled December 26, 27 and January 2. Transit maps and schedules are available from Milton Transit ticket agents located at Town Hall Annex 555, Town Hall Victoria Park, the Milton Leisure Centre, the Milton Sports Centre, the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre, the Milton Public Library and the lottery kiosk at Zellers in the Milton Mall.

Route schedules, maps and additional transit information are also available on-line at www.milton.ca or by calling (905) 815-2020.
