

Your Invitation To Worship

What Does God Look Like II?

As we continue from last week, let me begin with a thought for Christmas that ought to make all of our female readers smile. Too often, women end up being the butt of jokes—this time, I think that the shoe is on the other foot!

Question:
Do you know what would have happened if it had been Three Wise Women instead of Three Wise Men?

Answer:
They would have asked directions, arrived on time, helped deliver the baby, cleaned the stable, made a casserole, brought practical gifts - and there would be peace on earth.

I wish it was that easy! It isn't. Jesus came as Emmanuel, which means God with us, into a world that had lost its connection with God. His birth was foretold some 800 years prior to his arrival by the prophet Isaiah:

He will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Let us conclude our look at this prophetic portrait of Jesus Christ written several hundreds of years prior to His Incarnation.

Mighty God
When the wrongs of the world needed to be righted and fallen humanity needed to be lifted up, God did not send His angels to help. He personally came to earth and got involved—that's what Christmas is all about! God caring enough about us to get intimately involved in our lives!

Everlasting Father

He is without begin and without end. He was born as a child at Christmas, but existed in eternity long before that. He had no beginning and He has no end!

Price of Peace

His peace can bring calm to the storms of life. His rule in the human heart, allows an individual to face any crisis with confidence, endure any sorrow and face any temptation. He is sovereign!

Sounds like the kind of Saviour that we need for 2005! To learn more about God's Son, Jesus Christ, consider visiting a local church. Consult the Religious Directory below for service times and locations.
