Police release photo of robber

Halton Regional Police are hoping surveillance photos of a suspect wanted in connection with a recent bank robbery in Campbellville will help the public identify him.

At 4 p.m. November 4, a man entered the Scotia Bank at 36 Main St. The suspect, whose face was partially covered, approached both tellers and demanded cash. The tellers complied and the suspect placed the money in a plastic bag and fled the area.

He was seen leaving in an older model white car with silver racks on the trunk lid.

The suspect is white, in his late fifties, five-foot-11 and has grey/white hair and a slim build. He was wearing a baseball cap, sunglasses, a red turtleneck and grey coveralls.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court. Crime Stoppers of Halton doesn't subscribe to call display. Please call 1-800-222-TIPS (1-800-222-8477) or check out Crime Stoppers' Web site at www.haltoncrimestoppers.com.
