MILTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

Welcome back Mustangs! Put away those Christmas trees, set those alarm clocks and start getting to bed early as we are in the home stretch of our 1st semester at Milton District High School. As everyone is scrambling to finish summatives, essays, and preparing for exams, take a minute and catch up on everyone's holidays!

January 2-5, Mr. Cino and Ms. Mendes took students down to Vermont to hit the snowy slopes for 3 days of spectacular skiing and snowboarding. The pictures seen being exchanged in the hallways yesterday and the stories being shared tell the rest of the Mustang population that this trip was a tremendous success! Despite some minor injuries, this trip was very memorable!

Start counting the days! The trips to Belize and Rome are coming up in March to bring even more pictures and more stories to Milton District! As many of you have noticed, the Mustang school stores as begun to sell snack items and different Mustang gear. The Student Parliament took the time and effort to repaint and set-up the store in use periods three and four in the cafeteria. Come on out and check it out!

The girl's volleyball season and boys basketball seasons are coming along well as they have started practicing already for the New Year to come.

Mustangs: Come on out and show your school spirit to watch your boys and girls take on their different rivals in exciting matches!

Exams are coming up and for many of us these scores could decide which university/college accept us. Even though this is a lot of pressure let us give you one hint: relax! Take advantage of the school's resources and help clinics. Keep pushing your almost there!

For the rest of you: study hard and good luck!

All right Mustangs that's it for another week! Take it easy!

E.C. DRURY HIGH SCHOOL

Michelle - "Hey, Nathan. How was your vacation?"

Nathan - "It's was fine, I guess."

Michelle - "What's wrong?"

Nathan - "Well, I really enjoyed relaxing for two weeks. But now the holidays are over, and we're all back to school."

Michelle - "That's not so bad. Sure, I could have used a few more days off. But I'm glad to be back."

[enter Matt]

Matt - "Hey, guys. I had the best vacation ever."

Michelle - "What did you do?"

Matt - "Well, for starters there were all the presents. I also went to Montreal for the new year and partied."

Michelle - "The whole family came over to my house and we had Christmas dinner. It was amazing."

Nathan - "I got to hang out with my friends and my brother. I had a great time. But now I have a mountain of homework."

Michelle - "Tell me about it. January is going to be a very busy month, what with final projects and presentations."

Nathan - "Not to mention our upcoming exams."

Matt - "Oh, man. I almost forgot about that."

Michelle - "Yeah, the end of a semester is always a stressful time, especially for seniors. But if we work hard and manage our time, I'm sure we'll be fine."

Nathan - "Speaking of seniors, the university and college application deadline is fast approaching. January 11th is the cut-off date!"

Michelle - "I applied a few weeks ago, and it was a piece of cake!"

Matt - "I guess I should get on that. Thanks for reminding me."

Nathan - "No problem. Well, looks like it's time to start working our way through our homework."

Michelle - "Good luck."

Nathan - "Thanks. I have a feeling I'm going to need it!"

BISHOP REDING HIGH SCHOOL

Welcome back, Bishop Reding! We hope you all had a wonderful break, spent with family and friends. We wish everyone all the best for a healthy and happy new year! This Christmas break was a wonderful time for everyone to relax after a very busy few months back at school. Sometimes, we forget to slow down and enjoy the simple things in life, like spending time with family or carrying on special holiday traditions. We hope that everyone took the time to enjoy these simple things during the holiday season.

The break is a great time for get-togethers of all kinds, whether it be with friends, family, co-workers or even some strangers. Christmas holidays are a great opportunity for seeing those long lost family members who you may be "too busy" for during the rest of the year. It is wonderful to catch up with cousins, aunts, uncles and grandparents alike. It is this time of year that family becomes the focus, and so the time spent with loved ones is cherished.

While the holidays are perfect for spending time with others, they are also a time for rest and recuperation. For students, it's a much needed break from the hustle and bustle of classes and activities. At this special time of year, we can focus on doing what we want to do, without having to fit in homework and extra-curriculars. The inside sources were busy having fun in different ways, be it an exotic trip, or just staying home with family and friends. This break has been thoroughly enjoyable for all.

As we return from holidays we hope everyone is relaxed and prepped to face the rapidly approaching cram for exams. We may not want to go back, but your inside sources are eager to bring you the inside scoop on the happenings at Bishop Reding in this new, fresh year. Stay tuned!
