

Your Invitation To Worship

A Month After Christmas

January is a good month to reflect upon change! New Year's Resolutions cause us to aspire towards better things in a New Year! Our dreams keep our hopes alive! Yet, it is our commitment to improvement that will make the difference!

Whatever your resolutions may be, I would encourage you to pack them in hand, to pick them up if they've fallen and to partner with someone to help you and to hold you accountable! Good friends will always make us better!

A good friend sent me this poem! I laughed as I read through it! If you are anything like me, you'll appreciate the spirit with which it was shared! Enjoy!

'Twas the month after Christmas, and all through the house

Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.

The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I'd tasted

At the holiday parties had gone to my waist.

When I got on the scales there arose such a number!

When I walked to the store (less a walk, more a lumber).

I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared;

The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rare,

The wine and the rum balls, the bread and the cheese

And the way I'd never said, "No thank you, please."

As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt

And prepared once again to do battle with dirt--

I said to myself, as I only can

"You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"

So - away with the last of the sour cream dip,

Get rid of the fruit cake, every cracker and chip

Every last bit of food that I like must be banished

'Til all the additional ounces have vanished.

I won't have a cookie--not even a lick.

I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.

I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,

I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.

I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore---

But isn't that what January is for?

Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.

Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!

Seize your opportunities at the beginning of this New Year! Make changes in your life that will change you and allow you to be the best that you can be!
