The Ivy ARMS

201 Main Street, Milton
905-876-4899

Locally owned & operated

Everybody's Talking..

Milton residents are sending a warm welcome to the new owners of the Ivy Arms. And they are looking forward to meeting you!

The Ivy Arms understands what you are looking for in your local pub. They have introduced Plasma Televisions for all you sports fans.

The exterior remains the same; an old stone structure covered with wild ivy, hence it's name. The interior has seen some welcomed additions to the Tudor style British pub.

The Ivy Arms specializes in excellent home-made pub fare with a variety of affordable upscale lunch and dinner features. On the weekend they serve you breakfast from 11 am- 4 pm. You wont always have to dine in you will be able to enjoy the Ivy Arms take-out menu at home. Children are always welcome to choose from their own special menu.

They offer a fine selection of spirits. There are thirteen imported & domestic draughts, but there is talk of an additional four to be added to their portfolio. You will enjoy fine wines from Ontario, France, Italy and Australia.

They will be having occasional featured entertainers, a private party room for your special functions, and a covered outdoor heated patio.

Seniors will be happy to know that they have been certified for their "Stepping out Safely" so they too can enjoy the Ivy Arms.

Strong community spirit, warm personalities, sample parking in the rear, wheelchair accessibility and a focus on cleanliness are attributes that will make casual visitors into regular customers. Come relax and enjoy! Why not book your Christmas party in their cozy, private downstairs room!
