

Family is desperate for return of woman

The family of a Milton woman who went missing more than three weeks ago has told police it's out of character for her not to contact them.

Cory Way

Halton Regional Police said at press time yesterday afternoon that Cory Lee Way, 26, still hasn't been located. Police began asking for the public's assistance in finding Ms Way last week.

The woman was last seen December 31 by her family at their home, where she lives. Family members believe she's in the Toronto area.

Although at this point it's not expected she's in danger, her family is desperate for her return, Det. Sgt. Peter Hodgson said.

"Although it's not unusual for her to leave home for short periods of time, it is unusual for her not to contact them," he said.

She may be driving a red 2005 Ford Focus wagon with licence plate AWVS433.

Ms Way is described as five-foot-two and 127 pounds with brown hair and brown eyes and a star tattoo on her neck as well as a scorpion tattoo on her back.

Anyone with information is asked to call police at (905) 878-5511, ext. 2410, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

Bar's liquor licence suspended for 15 days

A local sports bar will have its liquor licence temporarily suspended for 15 days after it admitted to serving alcohol to drunken patrons.

For 15 days, from this Sunday to February 13, Nascar Pit Sports Bar on Main Street East, won't be permitted to sell alcoholic drinks.

This was decided Monday after a hearing held earlier this month by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario. Nascar Pit owner Vito Agozzino chose not to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing.

An agreed statement of facts stated drunken patrons were at Nascar Pit April 1 and 28 and were served liquor despite their intoxication, contrary to the Liquor Licence Act.
