

Young skier found unconscious recovers

A 15-year-old Burlington girl suffered head injuries Tuesday while snowboarding at Glen Eden Ski and Snowboard Centre.

Halton Regional Police are investigating the accident, which took place just after 6 p.m.

The girl was found unconscious on a hill by friends, but none of them had seen the accident happen and no witnesses have been found.

The girl was stabilized at the scene by members of the Glen Eden Ski Patrol and was transported to Milton District Hospital by ambulance. She was then transferred to Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children in serious condition.

The victim regained consciousness Wednesday and police said she was expected to return home this weekend.

Police are asking anyone with information to call (905) 825-4777 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
