Dancers' donation

Students and teachers of The Dance Shoppe show a cheque for $1,363.55 — the proceeds from a dance-a-thon Sunday to support the Canadian Cancer Society. The fundraising event was held in memory of Sonja Lyall-Lakin — a former Miltonian and close friend of club owner Ruth-Ann Gray — who died of cancer last year.

Milton Players holding auditions

Have you ever wanted to give acting a try? Or maybe you're no stranger to the stage but are new to Milton and don't know about its local theatre company.

Well, the Milton Players Theatre Group is issuing an audition invitation to actors young and old for its next performance.

February 19 at 1:30 p.m. and February 21 at 7:30 p.m., the theatre group will hold auditions for its next play, 'Funny Money', by Ray Cooney.

The auditions will take place at 295 Alliance Rd., unit 15.

The play will be performed May 5 to 6 and 11 to 13 at the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre.

Two women and six men aged 30 and older are required for this show, in which the life of mild-mannered Henry Perkins takes an exciting twist when he picks up the wrong briefcase — which turns out to be full of money.

The characters required range from an ordinary housewife to a spirited taxi driver to a kindly policeman.

As the play is an English farce, a Cockney accent will be required, although it won't be necessary at the auditions.

The auditions will consist of a cold, group read (no monologues). Auditioners will be asked to fill out an application, which will include previous performance experience.

Cast members must be able to rehearse three times a week and every night the week before opening night.

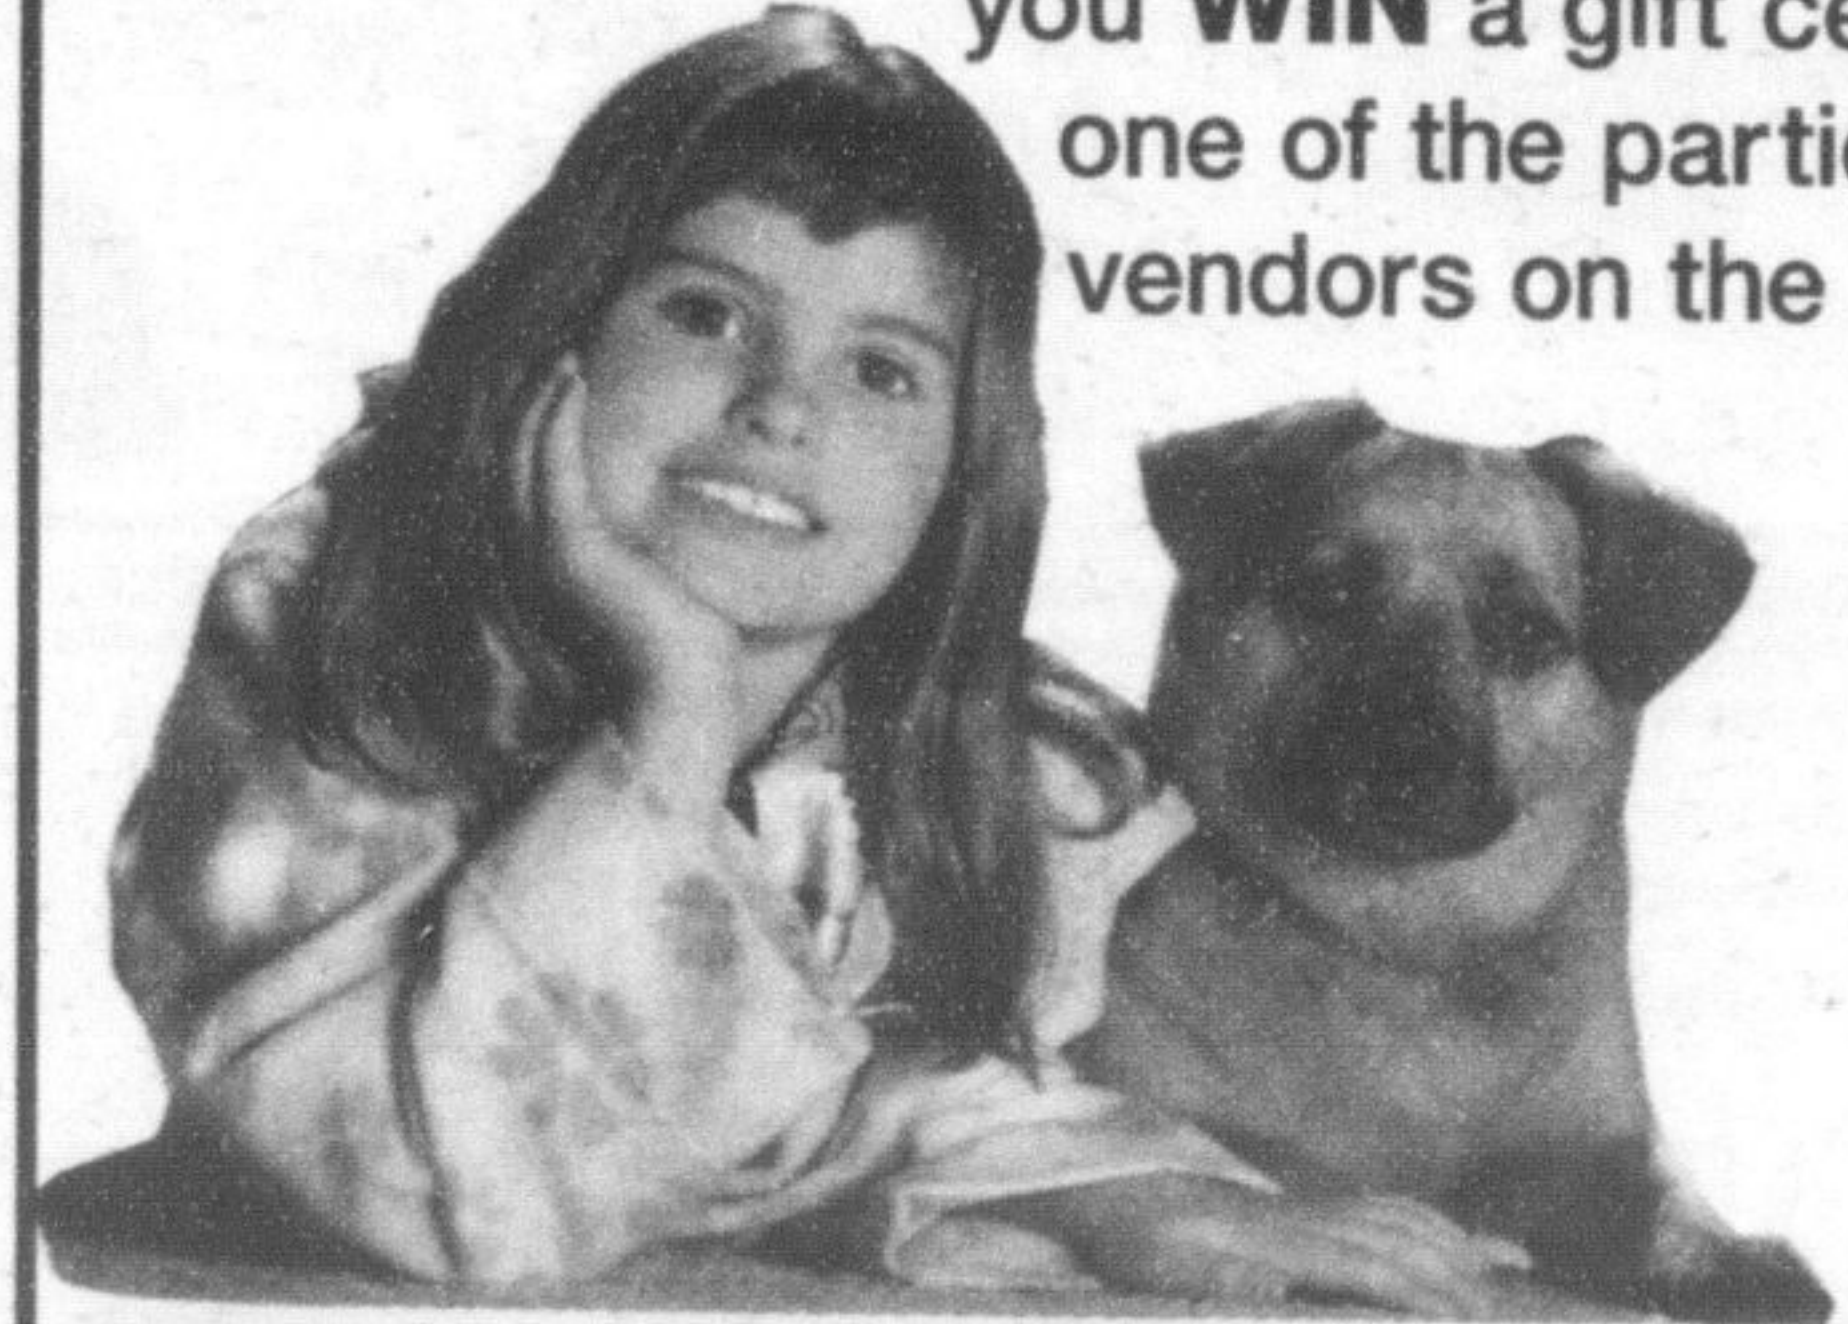

For more information about this show or the Milton Players Theatre Group, visit www.miltonplayers.com, e-mail info@miltonplayers.com or call (905) 875-0629.
