

Minor bants advance past qualifying round

Milton's AA minor bantams swept their OMHA qualifying round in convincing fashion Sunday night, toppling the Orangeville Flyers 7-3.

Mac Gervais and Vikram Kalia each tallied twice in the second period to essentially put the verdict to rest, while Scott Dermott opened the scoring and added two assists.

Also denting the twine were Brendan Farrell and Sachin Ghai. Single helpers went to Andrew Browne, Matt Cameron and Thomas Thibault.

Now riding a five-game win streak, the Winterhawks began a best-of-five series with the Brampton Battalion last night on the road. Game two will be played Sunday at Memorial Arena, beginning at 7:45 p.m.

Milton edged Brampton 2-1 in both regular-season encounters.

AE2 bantams move on

Milton's AE2 bantams advanced past OMHA qualifying action with their straight 2-0 whitewash of Woolwich Sunday at Memorial Arena.

Michael Haringa stood tall between the pipes for the shutout, while Michael McLelland and Brendan Whiting did the scoring. Assists were recorded by Richard Monk, Dylan

Rep Hockey

Pettie and Mark Prusha.

Big defensive efforts were delivered by Dustin Christo and Ricardo Raduka.

Three nights earlier the Winterhawks tied Hespeler 5-5, due to a hat-trick from Nick Williams and solid cage work by Prusha.

The AE2 bantams started a best-of-five series with Thorold last night, while game two is set for Saturday at 7 p.m. at Milton Sports Centre.

Minor atom 'Canes tops

Sporting Miltonian Andrew Dodson, Halton's AAA minor atoms finished first in the SCTA with an incredible 25-4-3 record.

The Hurricanes capped regular-season play with three straight shutouts — posting a 1-0 win over the Burlington Eagles, a 2-0 blanking of the Oakville Rangers and finally a 1-0 decision over the Brampton Battalion.

Halton began post-season play with a 4-2 victory over Niagara Falls and continued the best-of-five series last night. Game three is tomorrow in Brampton.
