Library closed

Milton Public Library will be closed next week to accommodate the final stretch of its renovations.

All on-line services will still be available at www.mpl.on.ca, and loan periods have been extended so nothing is due back from Monday to March 13.

Upon reopening March 14, the library will have a relocated children's area on the transformed lower level, as well as a browsing area for magazines, paperbacks, DVDs, CDs and videos. Other changes include an expanded adult fiction section and a new coffee bar in the newspaper reading nook.
