GRAHAM PAINE / CANADIAN CHAMPION

Reg. Rd. 25 flood causes early morning road closure

Motorists travelling on Regional Road 25 north of town had to find an alternate route home early Saturday morning.

A flooded road coupled with a single-vehicle accident led to a stretch of the busy road being closed for several hours.

Police responded to the collision just after 2 a.m. between No. 10 and 15 sideroads.

They discovered that water was flowing over the road, making it impossible for vehicles to drive through.

The problem occurred because a culvert under the road was unable to accommodate the excessive water caused by the sudden warm temperatures and rain.

The road was reopened at about 6:30 a.m.
