

Haydar at Copps Wednesday

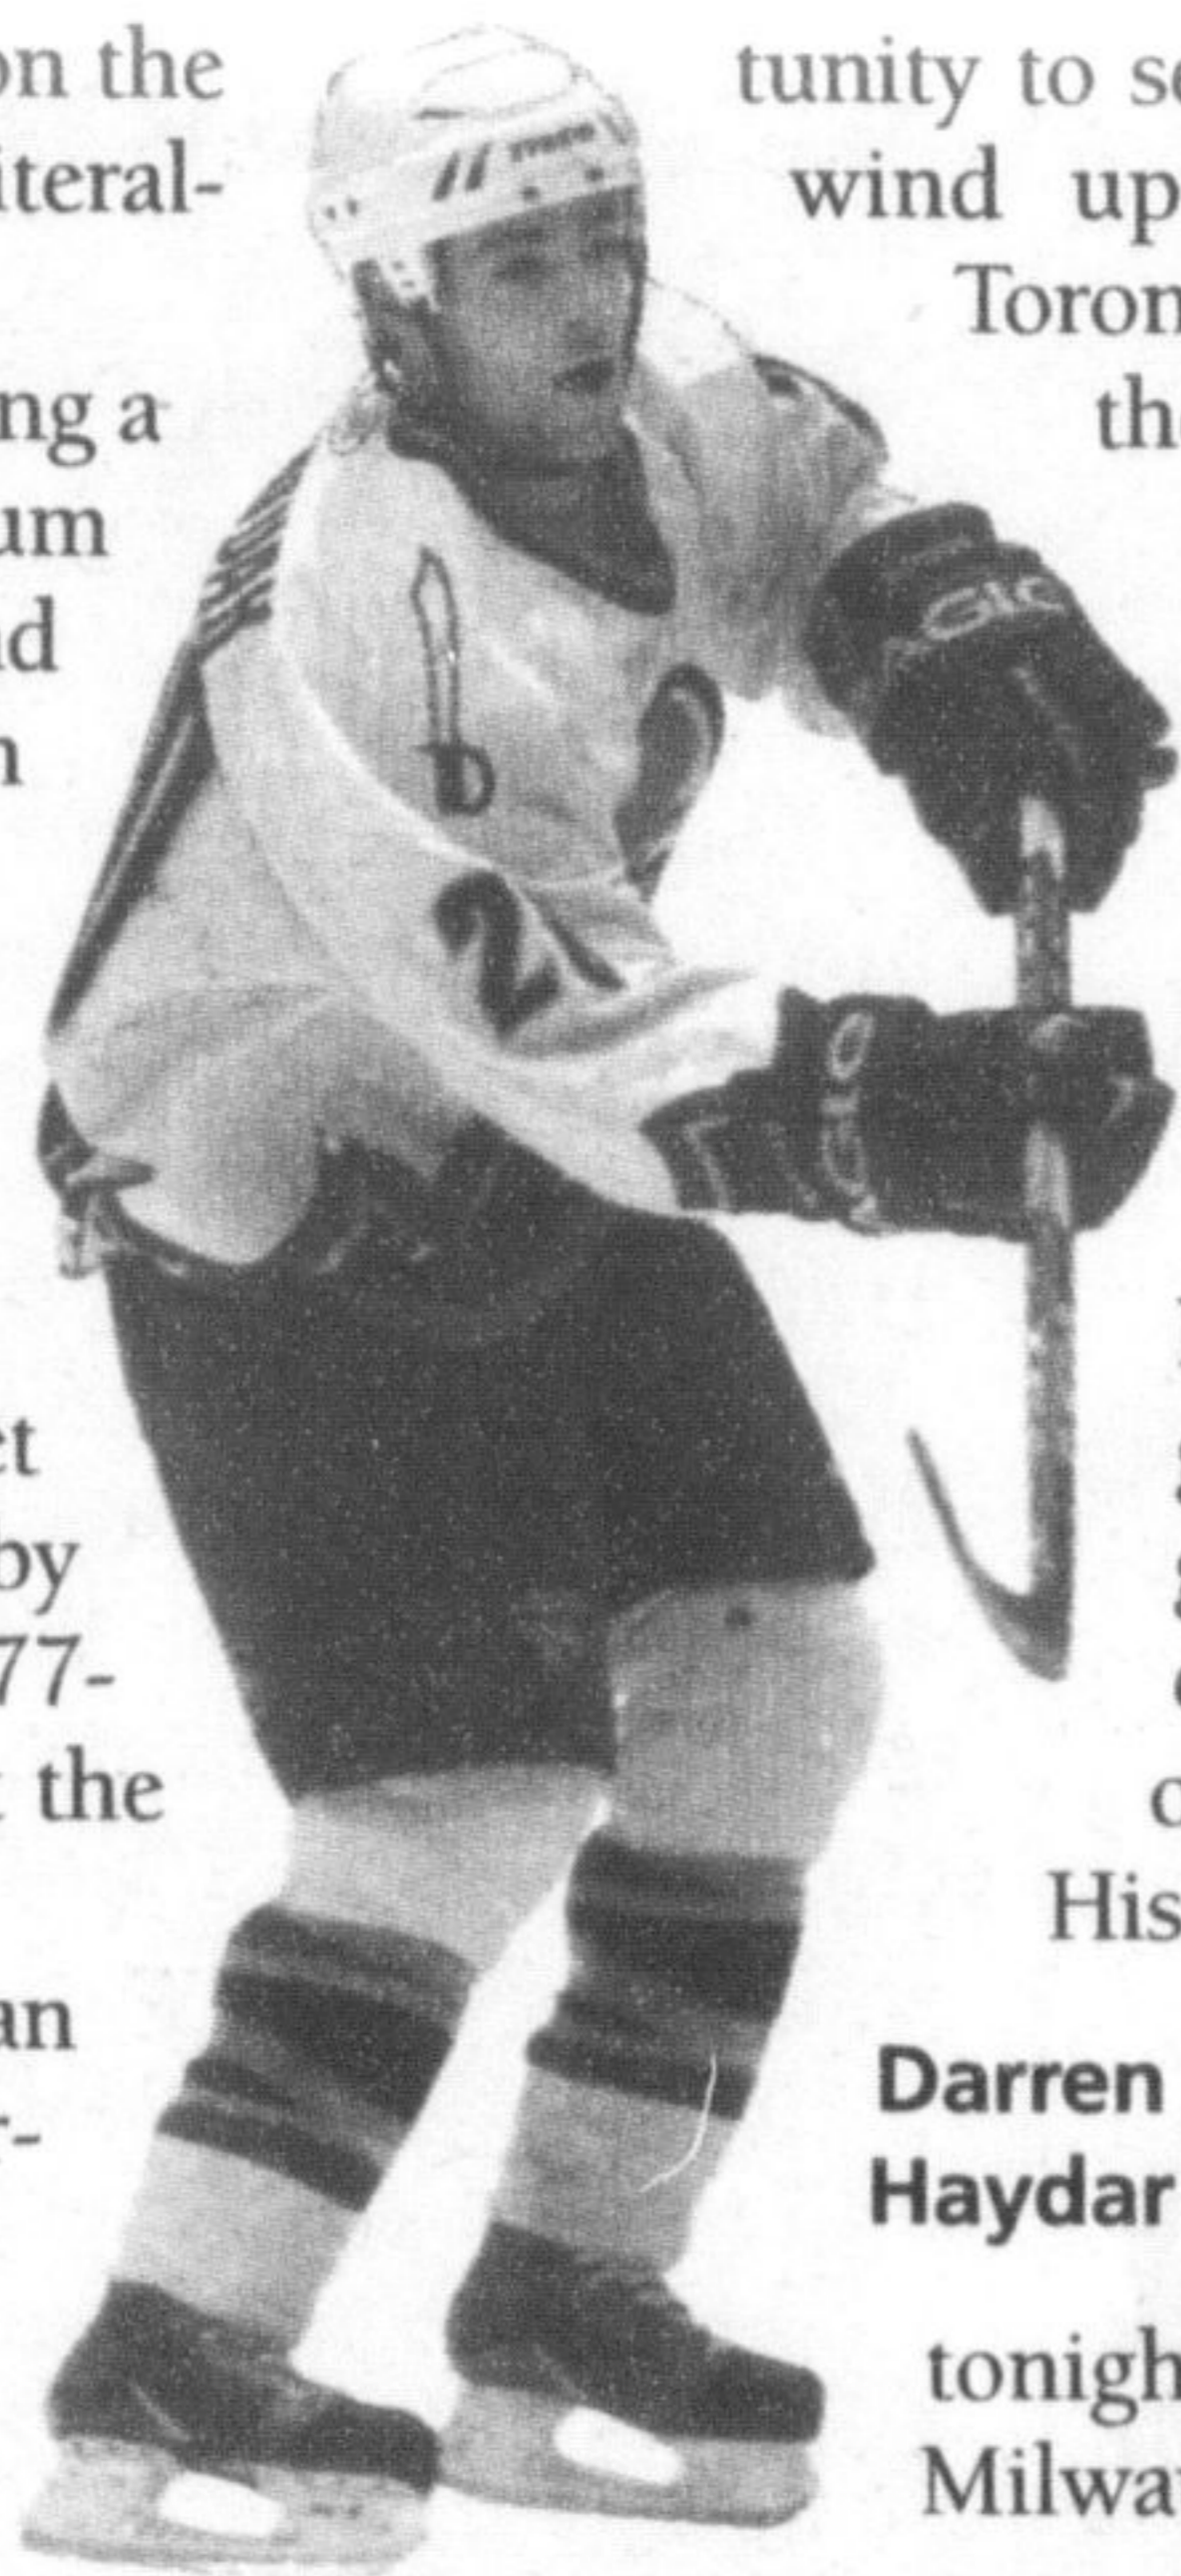

Local hockey fans hoping to jump on the Darren Haydar bandwagon can do so literally next week.

Main Street pub Bryden's is organizing a bus trip to Hamilton's Copps Coliseum Wednesday evening, when Haydar and the AHL Milwaukee Admirals take on the Bulldogs.

Transportation and admission to the game costs $30, with the bus leaving at 5:30 p.m. For those looking to go by themselves, the Bulldogs are offering a special advanced ticket rate of $15 for Team Haydar-goers by contacting Chris Conant at (905) 777-2375. The deal will not be available at the door.

Those interested in the bus trip can call Bryden's at (905) 693-0113 for further details.

Fans who can't catch Haydar Wednesday will have another opportunity to see him in the area, as the Admirals wind up a Canadian swing against the Toronto Marlies next Sunday, Mar. 26 at the Ricoh Coliseum. Game time is 5 p.m.

Now in his fourth season in the AHL, Haydar is currently ninth in league scoring with 24 goals and 48 assists in 66 games. With exactly a month left in the regular season, the 26-year-old Miltonian is likely to break his single-season AHL records for both goals (29) and total points (75) — each set during his 2002/03 Rookie of the Year campaign.

His Admirals sit second in the AHL's West Division at 40-19-5-2 and have a chance to gain some ground on front-runner Houston tonight, when the two teams clash in Milwaukee.

Hot Rods hosts stock car series meeting

Stock car racing enthusiasts may want to swing by Hot Rods Sunday afternoon.

Now serving as the centralized meeting ground for southern-Ontario's Weekend Warrior Series, the Milton sports bar and restaurant will host a pre-season drivers' meeting from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Race fans are invited to interact with drivers and pit crew members afterwards and have a close-up look at the Lucas Cup — the Holy Grail of Canadian grassroots stock car racing — before enjoying the Golden Corral 500 from Atlanta, starting at 1 p.m.

"Hot Rods is an ideal location for us, since it's in the middle of our seven tracks and has such a strong connection with racing," said Joshua Paxton of Paxton Motorsports Marketing, in charge of promoting the Weekend Warrior Series. "There's some Milton drivers on the circuit like Terry King and Kevin Benish, and we're planning some show-and-shine events as well this summer."
