

Annual fly-fishing event in Burlington April 8-9

Whether you're a beginner or an expert, there'll be something for everyone at the 30th anniversary of Canada's original and longest-running fly-fishing event.

Presented by volunteers of the Izaak Walton Fly Fishing Club, the Canadian Fly Fishing Forum runs from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. April 8 and 9 at the Burlington Holiday Inn.

The show is designed to give all anglers a chance to learn more about fishing with a fly.

'Canes vie for OHL Cup wildcard berth

Minor midgets await word on inclusion after losing final of SCTA tournament

Halton's AAA minor midgets are now in wait-and-see mode regarding their inclusion in the OHL Cup.

Sporting seven Milton-area players this season and finishing the regular season at an impressive 24-6-6, the Hurricanes have applied for wildcard status after losing in the finals of last weekend's SCTA championship tournament in Hamilton.

Stunday's 3-1 title defeat to Burlington was especially heart-breaking, since Halton had gone into the weekend on a definite roll — having lost just once since Christmas — and hit two posts late in the game.

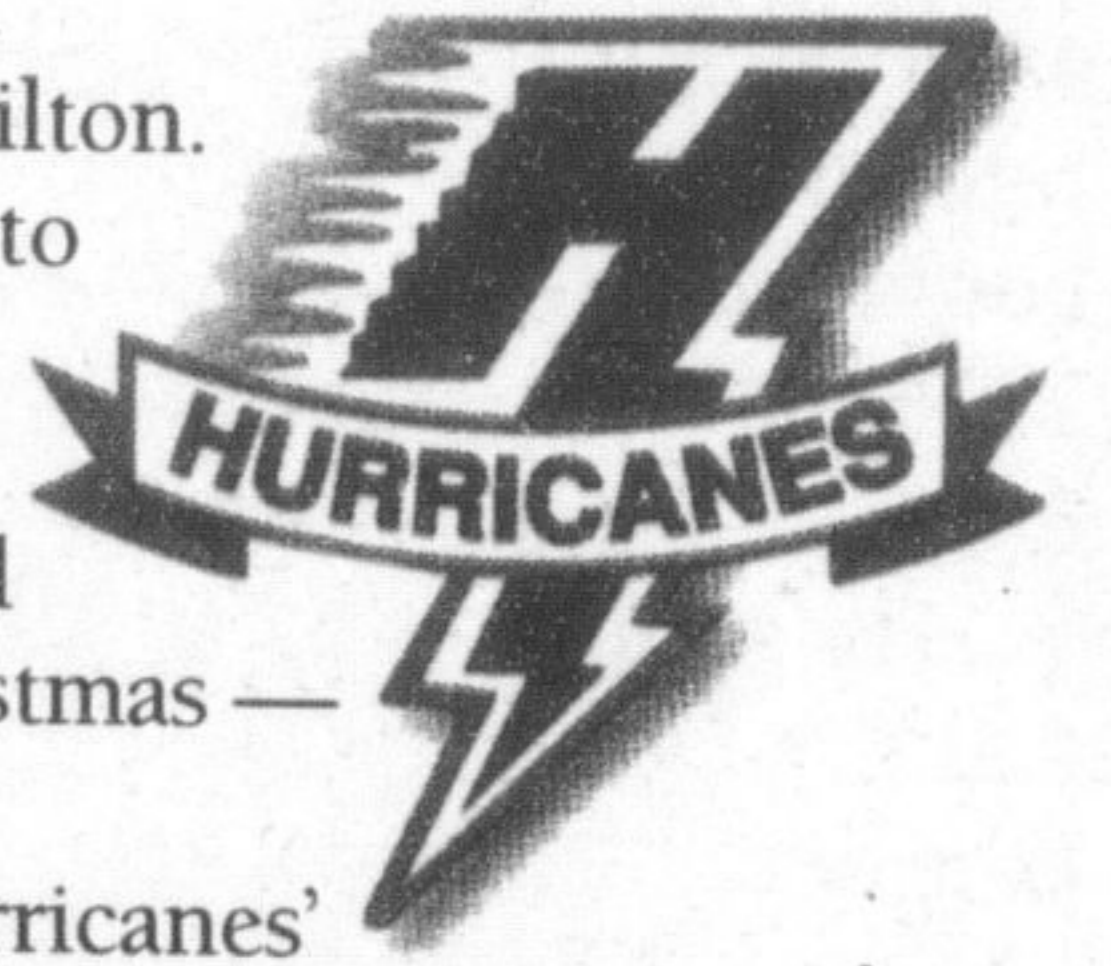

An empty netter sealed the Hurricanes' fate and left them out of the picture for this weekend's OMHA championships in Markham.

"It's tough when you lose just twice since Christmas and don't advance," said head coach Mike Kalapaca, who wouldn't speculate on his team's chances of being granted the wildcard spot.

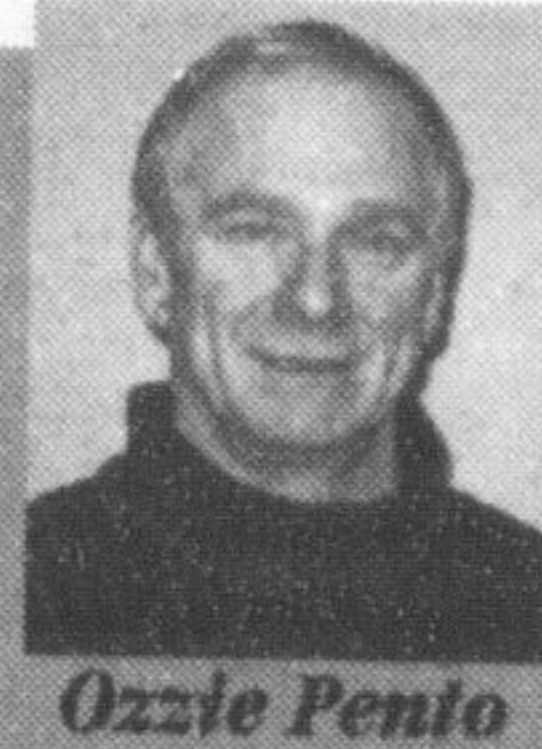

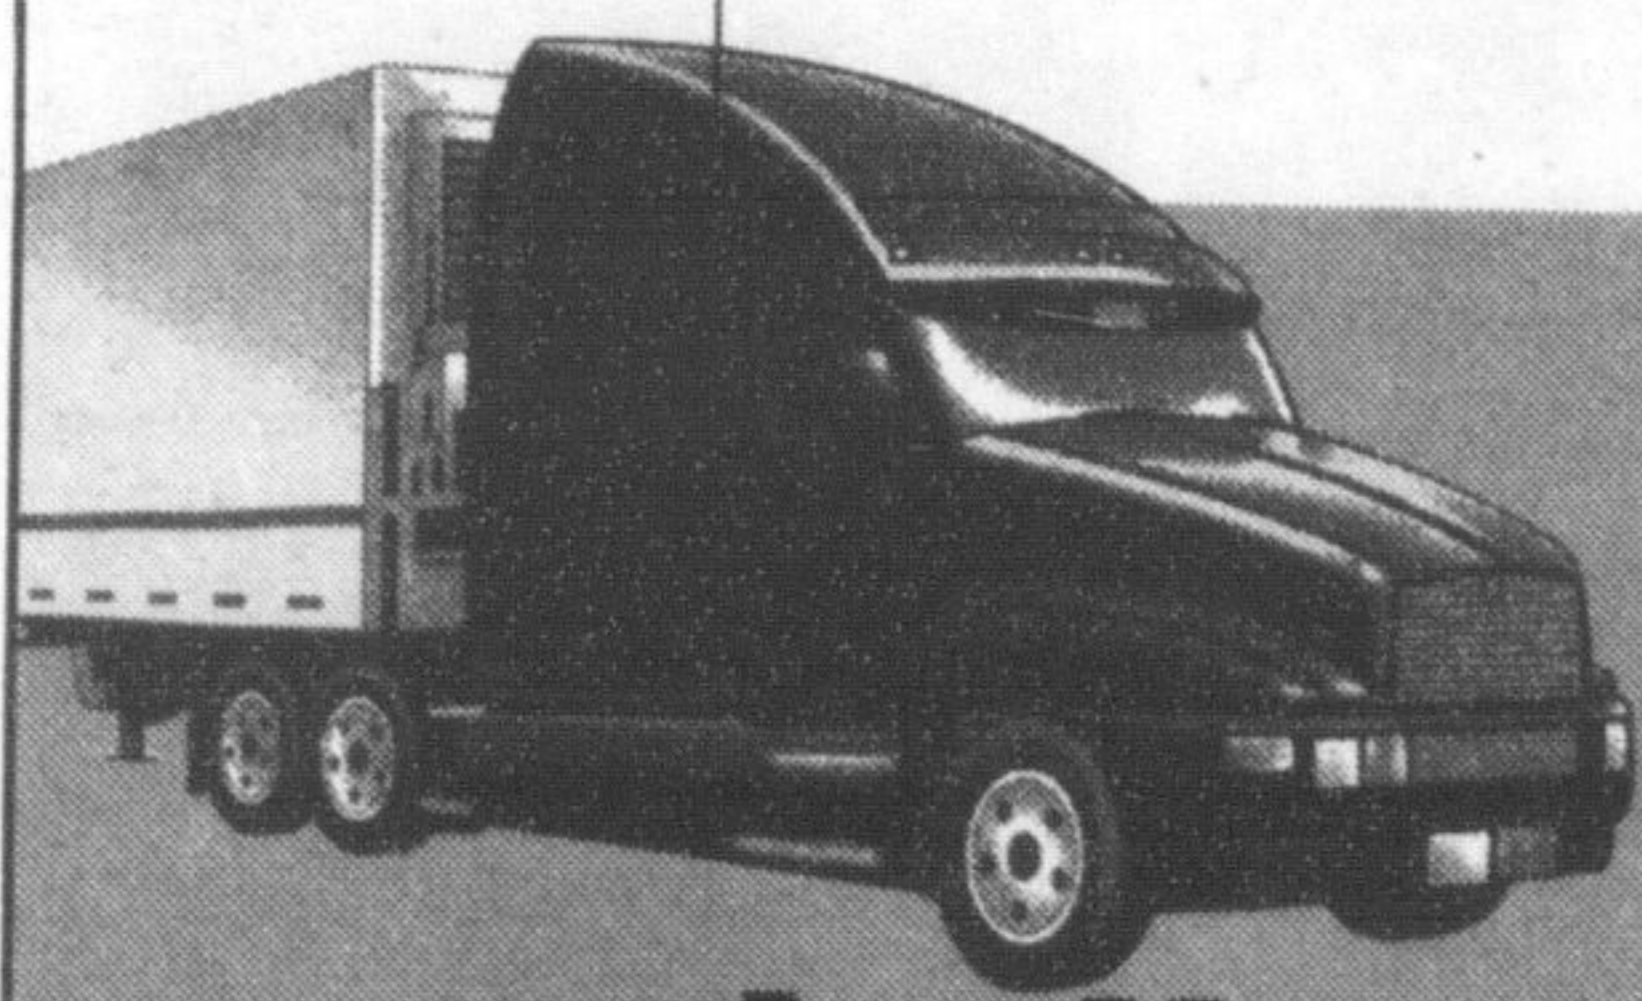

OMHA silver medalists last year, the Hurricanes cruised into the SCTA finals with four straight wins, including a 5-3 decision over regular season champion Oakville. They also turned back challenges from Brampton (5-0), Niagara Falls (7-1) and Stoney Creek (4-1).

Should the Hurricanes get the wildcard nod, they'll compete in the OHL Cup next weekend in North York.

Brayden Abraham, Matt Clark, Brad Hoy, Jeremy Price, Scott Stover, Ryan Williams and James Woodcroft make up the team's local contingent. Fellow Miltonian Dan Sales assists Kalapaca behind the bench.
