

Chimney fire at horse ranch

A chimney fire caused damage to a century home at a horse ranch in Campbellville Friday morning.

The Milton Fire Department was called at about 11:30 a.m. to a home on Walkers Line near No. 3 Sideroad.

They arrived to find smoke and charring along the roofline of the home, under the cedar shingles.

Smoke had gone up into the attic through the pipes of a wood-burning stove, said training technician Barry Kory.

There were no visible flames, just smoldering, he said.

Firefighters had to cut open the roof to pull out the charred insulation and were at the home for about six hours.

Damage is estimated at $20,000.

IN PROTEST: Farmers from across southern Ontario stage a protest at a Hwy. 401 truck weigh scale in Milton Friday to draw attention to the income crisis many of them are facing. The peaceful rally slowed eastbound traffic for several hours, with many drivers honking in support of the farmers' cause. The protest was aimed at the provincial and federal governments, which farmers have long been calling on for more support.
