

Man with machete scares babysitter

A babysitter looking after an infant got the scare of her life when two young men broke into the Hearst Boulevard home, one brandishing a machete, last week.

Police said the incident happened at about 10 p.m. March 16.

The suspects forced their way into the home with a crow bar and made contact with the babysitter. When they realized the residents weren't home, they left.

Police said it seems one of the men was looking to harm the people he was searching for.

On Sunday, York Regional Police arrested a man and turned him over to Halton Regional Police.

A 26-year-old Toronto man has been charged with break and enter with intent to commit an indictable offense, possession of a dangerous weapon, mischief under $5,000 and breach of probation.

The youth who accompanied the adult into the home was identified as a 16-year-old Brampton teen and found to be not complicit.

hoe, which was stolen from Peel region, is estimated to be valued at $105,000.

A 22-year-old Mississauga man was charged with possession of property obtained by crime over $5,000.

Tractor stolen

The tractor part of a tractor-trailer was stolen overnight Monday from the parking lot of Jameson Transport on Esquering Line.

Police said the locked tractor had been attached to a trailer, but the trailer wasn't stolen.

The tractor was a white 2004 Freightliner with Jameson Transport logos on both sides. It's valued at $80,000.

A licence plate reading 9903NS was also taken from the trailer.

Valuable saddles stolen

A storage building in rural Milton was broken into last week, with two specialty saddles worth a total of $5,000 taken.

Sometime between 9 p.m. March 14 and 1:30 p.m. March 16, unknown suspects forced their way into the locked building on Nassagaweya Line.

One saddle was a dark tan-coloured Billy Cook roping saddle worth $3,000.

The other was a light tan barrel racing saddle valued at $2,000.

Impaired charges laid

A man was arrested and charged with impaired driving after police pulled over a pick-up truck Saturday.

The vehicle was driving west on Derry Road, near Appleby Line when it was pulled over.

A 21-year-old Milgrove, Ont. man was charged with having over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood.

Arrest made in TV theft

A man was arrested and charged with theft Sunday after a TV was stolen from Zellers at Milton Mall last month.

Police said the television was stolen February 28. The man was arrested at Wal-Mart, where he was found to have Wal-Mart employee identification on him — although he didn't work at the store — and 29 bottles of Advil.

A 45-year-old Brampton man has been charged with theft under $5,000 and three counts of possession of property obtained by crime.

Store broken into

The Liberty Cash store on Bronte Street South was broken into last Friday.

Police said unknown suspects smashed the front door to gain entry at about 2 a.m. They took five framed posters of Canadian currency.
