

Zellers donates $10,000 to hospital

In conjunction with its recent grand re-opening, Zellers has given Milton District Hospital a $10,000 funding boost.

The hospital plans to use the corporate donation to purchase a ZoneAir overlay mattress for the Complex Continuing Care Unit, according to Halton Healthcare Services Public Relations Officer Andrea Hujwan. The special mattress is designed to prevent bedsores for those who have longer stays in the hospital.

Hujwan said the funds will also be spent on arm boards, which hold a person's arms out during an operation.
