Town's anniversary contest extended

The deadline for Milton's 150th anniversary celebration contest to design a mascot, theme and slogan for next year's festivities has been extended.

The contest will remain open until May 31. Entries that have already been submitted are still eligible.

The winning entry will be decided by the master committee, which consists of citizens, Town staff and council members. The winner will become this year's honoured guest to ring in the New Year with the mayor at the Town's New Year's Eve celebrations.

All entrants can submit their mascot designs, themes and slogans to: Town of Milton, 150th anniversary celebration committee, Attn: Lorrie Ferrante, 43 Brown St., Milton, Ont., L9T 5H2.

The year 2007 marks the 150th anniversary of the incorporation of the Town of Milton.

We believe... in helping. Anyone. Anywhere.
