

Guitarist next performer in concert series

Saskatchewan is a province better known for its agricultural exports than its musical ones.

However, the land that cultivated the talents of Joni Mitchell and Colin James has a few more where they came from — including a performer who will stop by Milton April 21.

Guitarist Joel Fafard will play at Hugh Foster Hall at 8 p.m. as part of the non-profit JustMiltonFolks house concert series.

Fafard intrigues audiences with his blend of urban and rural slide finger-style guitar playing, which features elements of blues, bluegrass, country, jazz and folk.

Fafard has opened for artists including Burton Cummings and has appeared with the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra.

Tickets cost $20 and are available by calling Rose Brooks at (905) 876-2645 or on-line at www.justmiltonfolks.ca.

Cruise makes Dean's List

A Milton student has been named to the Dean's List at a college for the deaf in Rochester, New York.

Quinn Cruise received the recognition for the fall quarter at Rochester Institute of Technology's National Technical Institute for the Deaf, where he's majoring in B.A. Science.

The Dean's List recognizes the academic achievement of students earning a 3.4 grade point average or better.

The college serves 1,100 students from around the world who study, live and socialize with 14,400 hearing students.
