Juno-winning blues guitarist in town next Fri.

Will perform at Hot Rods

One of Canada's premier blues guitarists will perform at Hot Rods next Friday.

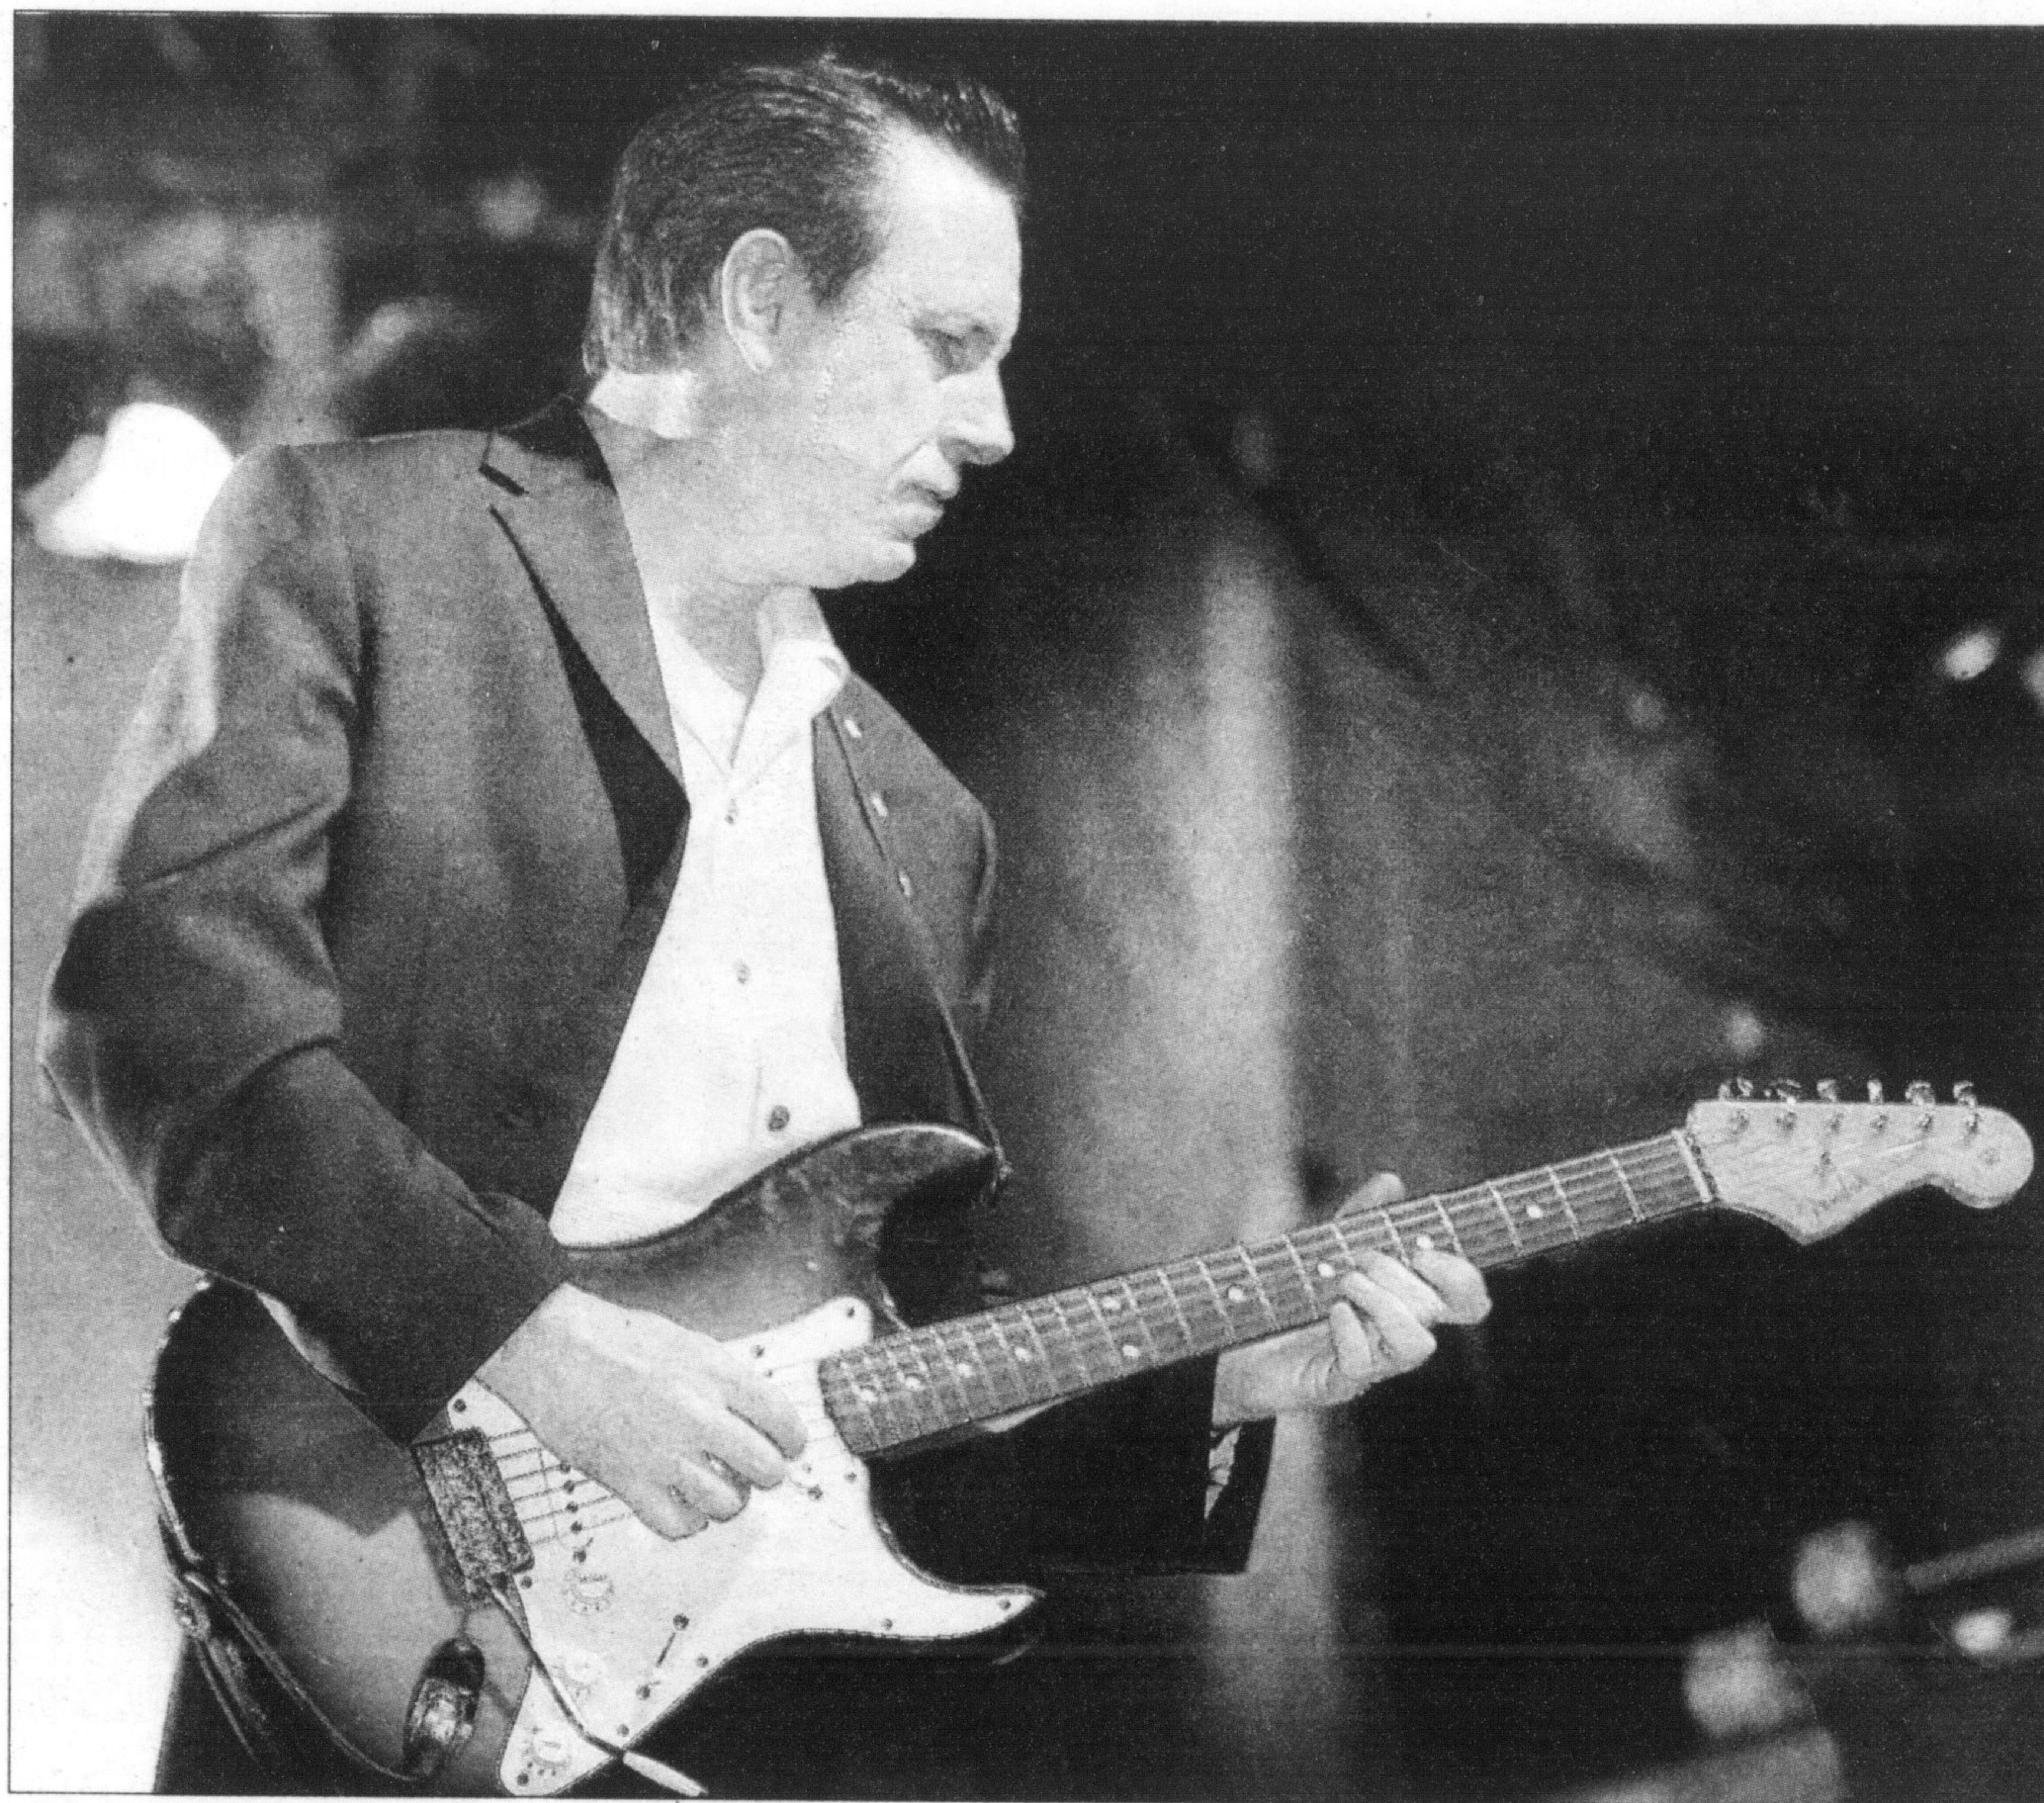

Jack de Keyzer is an award-winning blues guitarist, singer and songwriter who won a Juno in 2003 for Blues Album of the Year.

He'll take to the stage at Hot Rods, 121 Chisholm Dr., at 9:30 p.m.

De Keyzer has worked as a professional musician since the age of 18. His songs have appeared in videos, rock and blues radio charts, other artists' CDs, movies and TV soundtracks.

Performing more than 150 days a year, the Jack de Keyzer band has toured throughout Canada, the U.S., Mexico and Europe, and has performed at many major blues festivals.

He's recorded and toured with dozens of artists, including King Biscuit Boy, Rock Angels, the Bop Cats, Blue Rodeo, Bo Diddley, Etta James and Otis Rush.

READY TO ROCK MILTON: Set to take the stage at Hot Rods next Friday, Jack de Keyzer has performed with a number of well-known names on the blues music scene.

Brass quintet to take stage

Serious fun. That's the motto of a quintet that's performing next Friday in town.

The Foothills Brass Quintet will play a concert at St. Paul's United Church, 123 Main St. E., at 8 p.m.

This ensemble enjoys entertaining audiences of all ages with its eclectic repertoire served up with a good measure of humour. The quintet has performed across Canada, the U.S. and overseas, and has recorded five CDs that have received airplay on CBC as well as other stations.

Tickets to the performance cost $30 for adults and $25 for students and seniors. To order tickets, call (905) 878-4732.

Kids TV hosts here

Milton youngsters will get a chance to meet their favourite after-school television hosts as TVOKids Don't Sit Still (DSS) Tour rolls into town May 7.

Sponsored by Scotiabank, DSS will feature the popular hosts from The Space — Jackie and Mark — in two free, high-energy live stage shows in an effort to promote healthy, active living among Canada's youth.

The local event will get underway at 1 p.m. at Milton Memorial Arena on Thompson Rd.

Classical guitar concert on Apr. 29

St. Paul's United Church will be filled with the sweet strains of classical guitar in an upcoming performance of two brothers.

April 29 at 2 p.m., Grzegorz and Andrzej Krawiec will present a program of guitar duets by Bach, Chopin, Kleynjans, Granados and Rodrigo.

For the past 10 years, the pair has been winning international competitions individually and together. This will be the first visit to Canada for Andrzej and the fourth for Grzegorz.

Grzegorz, 25, was born in Poland and studied classical guitar from the time he was seven years old.

In 1999, he entered the Frederic Chopin Academy of Music in Warsaw, and completed his masters degree in guitar performance in 2004.

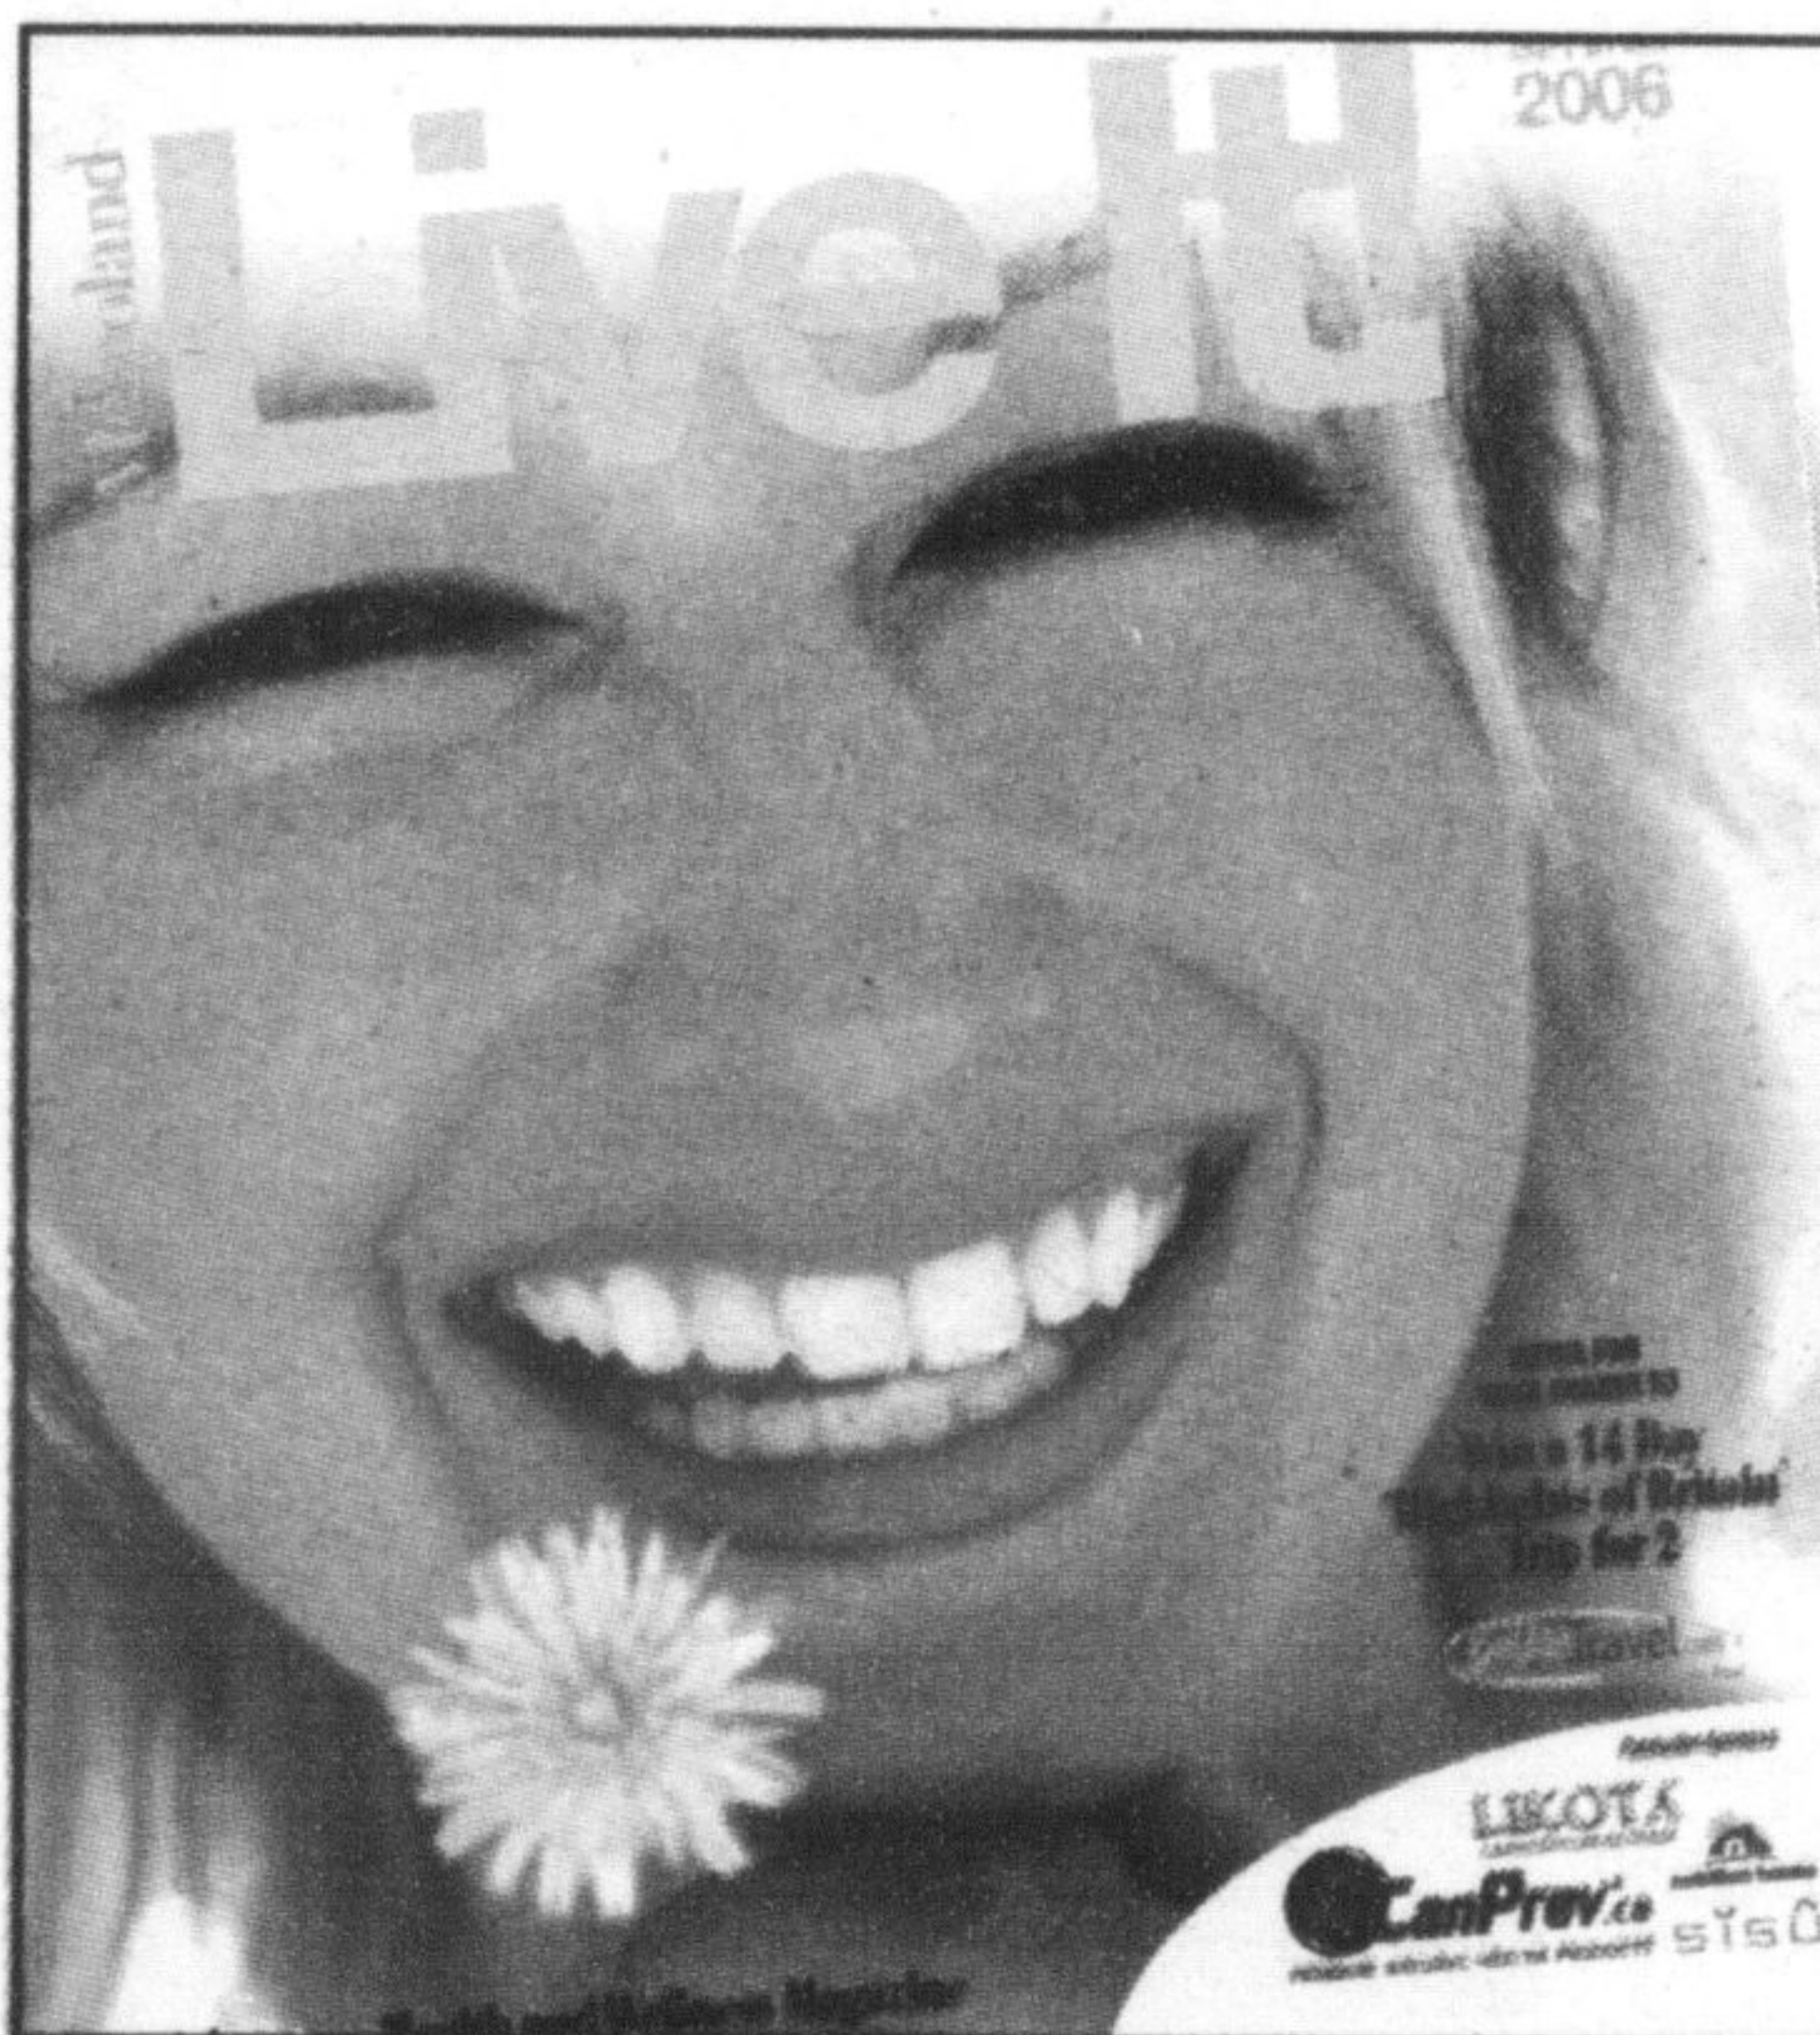

In addition to playing with orchestras throughout Poland, concert engagements have taken Grzegorz to countries including Austria, the Czech Republic, Germany, Italy and Spain.

He has recorded for radio and TV in Poland, and his debut solo CD was released last year.

Tickets cost $10 for students and $20 for adults and are available at Gospel Lighthouse, 164 Main St. E., cash only.

St. Paul's United Church is located at 123 Main St. E.
