CD release party tomorrow

Concert to be held at Knox church

Peaceful and uplifting melodies are sure to inspire audience members at a CD release party tomorrow. Local violinist Cheryl Hodgson and Mississauga harpist Chantal Dub will celebrate the release of their CD, Unto His Name, with a concert at 7 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church, 170 Main St. E. The concert will also feature a guest performance by vocalist Erin Linke. Tickets cost $10 at the door, and kids 10 years old and younger are free. Hodgson is a local violin teacher and owner of Milton's String Bean Violin Studio. She began her formal music training at the tender age of three. Dub, a private music studio instructor, plays a sizeable five-and-a-half-foot tall, 40-string petite pedal harp. She began playing when she was 12. This latest musical collaboration is a blend of traditional hymns, contemporary worship songs and well-known classical pieces, such as Pachelbel's Canon in D. The album is the result of both women's formal classical training, love for God and overall passion for music. Most of the songs focus on the various names given to God, hence the title of the CD. CDs will be for sale at the concert for $20 each.
