20-MINUTE CLEAN-UP

Above, Robert Baldwin grade 3 teacher Julie Plumb joins students Taylor Machado, 9 (left) and Kalynn Banks, 9, in showing some of the collected litter from Friday's 20-Minute Makeover, which featured clean-ups across town and the rest of the province. Top left, Robert Baldwin students (from left) Matthew Macrae, Christian MacLean and Richard Nipper — all eight years old — show their work gloves. Robert Baldwin was one of a dozen schools that took part in the event. At right, Selena Campbell of the Town of Milton's clerk's department carries filled garbage bags and cardboard collected in the 20-minute event to the drop-off site in front of Hugh Foster Hall. All of the Town's departments as well as a number of local businesses participated in the clean-up. Below left, bylaw enforcement officer Roy Smith (centre) is surrounded by clerk's department workers, (from left) Shelly Van Empell, Karyn Bennett and Selena Campbell. Below right, corporate services' (from left) Toni Hutchison, Christina McTavish, Dee Dee Fitzpatrick and Zaneta Horvarth (in front) take a break from cleaning up at Victoria Park.
