

Your Invitation To Worship

Someone Said...

Somebody said it takes about six weeks to get back to normal after you've had a baby.

Somebody doesn't know that once you're a mother, normal is history.

Somebody said you learn how to be a mother by instinct.

Somebody never took a three-year-old shopping.

Somebody said being a mother is boring.

Somebody never rode in a car driven by a teenager with a driver's permit.

Somebody said if you're a "good" mother, your child will "turn out good."

Somebody thinks a child comes with directions and a guarantee.

Somebody said "good" mothers never raise their voices.

Somebody never came out the back door just in time to see her child hit a golf ball through the neighbour's kitchen window.

Somebody said you don't need an education to be a mother.

Somebody never helped a fifth-grader with his math.

Somebody said you can't love the third child as much as you love the first.

Somebody doesn't have more than one child.

Somebody said a mother can find all the answers to her child-rearing questions in the books.

Somebody never had a child stuff beans up his nose.

Somebody said the hardest part of being a mother is labour and delivery.

Somebody never watched her "baby" get on the bus for the first day of kindergarten.

Somebody said a mother can do her job with her eyes closed and one hand tied behind her back.

Somebody never organized seven giggling girls to go door-to-door selling chocolate-covered almonds.

Somebody said a mother can stop worrying after her child gets married.

Somebody doesn't know that marriage adds a new son-in-law or daughter-in-law to a mother's heartstrings.

Somebody said a mother's job is done when her last child leaves home.

Somebody never had grandchildren.

Somebody said your mother knows you love her, so you don't need to tell her.

Somebody isn't a mother.

Mothers are central to the success of the family unit. Their love, dedication, and wisdom touch countless lives every day in every community throughout our land. Their love and guidance of children help to develop healthy and spiritually sound families.

Former U.S. President, John Quincy Adams, once said, "All that I am my mother made me."

Another former President, Abraham Lincoln, believed, "All that I am or hope to be I owe to my angel mother. I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life."

These statements are just as true for countless individuals who credit their mothers for helping to successfully shape their lives.

Mother's Day is coming up! Remember to make it special! Why not make plans to take Mom to a local place of worship and then celebrate a special meal in her honour afterwards! You can't go wrong in treating Mother right! Service times and locations are published in the Religious Directory below to help you!
