President's Message

Leslie McLaren

For those of you who attended the recent Community Awards Gala, I am certain you will agree that it was an incredible evening of recognizing those citizens and businesses that make Milton the wonderful place it is to work and live. A very big thank you to our generous sponsors that make it all possible. Congratulations to all of the recipients and nominees. I hope you are displaying your awards with pride! To Father Mark Curtis, thank you for volunteering your time and gifts as our Master of Ceremonies.

LUNCH WITH JOHN TORY, LEADER OF ONTARIO PC PARTY

Rattlesnake Point Golf Course was the locale for an informative lunch on the Provincial Budget and how it affects Ontarians. Guest speaker, John Tory, Leader of the Ontario PC Party, and Leader of the Official Opposition spoke about his concerns with the Liberal "Pay More Get Less" budget. On hand to hear Tory's critique of the recent provincial budget were members of the Milton business community and a host of other local politicians, including Mayor Gord Krantz, Town Councillor Cindy Lunau and Regional Councillor Barry Lee, MPP for Halton Ted Chudleigh, and Halton Conservative MP Garth Turner.

The 2006 Escarpment Country™ Guide has just been released. If you did not receive your copy be sure to pick one up at the Chamber or at the Visitor & Community Information Centre. Whether it's a unique shopping experience, taking a hike along the Bruce Trail, or bacon-on-a-bun at the Milton Farmers' Market (opens May 27th) you'll find it all in your own backyard. Grab the guide and enjoy a day out with family or friends.
