

Jamieson always 'life of the party'

• from FAMILY on page A1

spoke of her dad as a fun-loving guy who was the life of a n y party.

She said she knew never to sit beside him during a Maple Leafs game because of his excitement that sometimes translated into yelling and screaming.

"I knew when the Leafs won I could get anything," Mayhew read, as snuffles and laughter filled the church.

During a particularly poignant moment, a song was played at Ashlee's request.

"Daddy's girl, daddy's girl, I know I'm the centre of daddy's world," a voice rang out.

Kalee wrote that she wants to follow in her dad's footsteps.

"I'll always love the Leafs as my dad will too and I'll always love my dad and miss him greatly," Mayhew read.

After a closing prayer by the priest, the casket was wheeled out of the church by jersey-clad pallbearers.

Jamieson died April 29 when his canoe went over a 15-foot dam and capsized on the Grand River in Paris, Ont. during a camping trip with friends.

There were five canoes in total and several men unsuccessfully attempted to rescue Jamieson. A 41-year-old Dundas man also died during the attempt.

Due to the strong current of the water, it was a week before Jamieson's body was pulled from the river after being spotted by a family member.

Jamieson will be buried in Nova Scotia where he was born and has 11 brothers and sisters.
