Sheena Cameron

For more than 25 years, Sheena Cameron has been the smiling face behind the front desk at the Milton Canadian Champion. She's constantly organizing and participating in various fund-raisers, and has run the Christmas Bureau Fund for the Salvation Army for more than 20 years. As a breast cancer survivor, she's passionate about raising money to fight the disease, and is always looking for ways to help people.

Blanche Hinton

Many around Milton know Blanche Hinton as the woman behind The Children's Hour family entertainment series. She also created Milton Concert presentations years ago, giving Milton increased exposure to different types of music. She's an avid traveler who gives tours for a living and is actively involved with the Rotary Club of Milton. For almost 30 years, she was a teacher of the deaf.

Kimm Kent

With her heart for at-risk youth, Kimm Kent created the Peer Outreach Support Services and Education (POSSE) project in North Halton and has helped countless local teens through the Hepatitis C Prevention Program. She works with sexual assault survivors, and is involved in advocating for youth — particularly young women. She also sits on the Truth About Youth committee.

Grace Rylett

Grace Rylett is the director of communicable diseases with the Region of Peel. One of the many initiatives she's been involved with was the development of a Halton Hills smoking bylaw, through the Canadian Federation of University Women (Georgetown), which placed the town ahead of its time in reducing second hand smoke. She has developed girls' hockey teams in Georgetown, and is also active with the Boy Scouts of Canada.

Knowledge, Experience, Results

13 Charles Street, Suite 103, Milton • 905-878-2770

Have you ever wondered if there is a make-up line on the market that is actually good for your skin? Anne Maaden Cosmetic & Laser Centre is now offering a full anti-aging line of cosmetics. glōminerals™ offers mineral bases that combine powerful antioxidants and UV protection in a delivery system that provides flawless coverage. glōminerals™ contains vitamin C, K, A, E and green tea extract; nutrients vital to maintaining healthy skin.

This antioxidant blend also helps protect the skin from potentially harsh environmental elements that can cause free radical damage and advanced aging. These ingredients have anti-inflammatory properties, which also help improve the appearance and condition of acne and rosacea-prone skin. Every glōminerals™ product is non-comedogenic so skin can breathe, which helps inhibit the potential for bacteria to become trapped in pores.

The make-up line also offers complete protection using the effective properties of natural minerals including micronized titanium dioxide and zinc oxide. Flawless skin is everyone's dream. glōminerals™ makes it a reality. The line offers very exciting shades and hues and can be colour matched to all skin types. Treat your skin to a make-up line that can actually improve its health. Readers are welcome to book a free application to try out this amazing new line.
