T.O. gallery to show works of Newlove

*Art on display
June 8 to July 15*

One of Milton's own will showcase her work in a Toronto art gallery next month.

Artist Tina Newlove will have an exhibit at Yorkville's Leonardo Gallery from June 8 to July 15.

"They're pretty excited about my new work," Newlove said of the gallery's owners.

The show, entitled 'Post-it Notes, Forget-me-nots, Skeletons and Quiet Spots', will feature oil and mixed-media paintings, most of them connected in that they're based on Newlove's memories and subconscious.

On display will be small paintings on rice paper of day-to-day memories, more intense artwork painted overtop a blown-up dictionary page and a collection of paintings featuring skeletons — literally and figuratively.

"My past haunts me, so (my work) is always bittersweet," she said.

But there'll also be more serene landscapes and a self-portrait to round out the collection.

Newlove, who lives in Guelph but maintains a studio in Campbellville, said her art is very feminine and somewhat surreal. Much of it is based on ideas rather than objects, and she tends to paint from her memory or subconscious rather than from photos.

"This gallery has been so supportive. Hopefully it (the exhibit) gets some attention," Newlove said.

Host of Broadway classics featured at June 3 concert

A musical evening in the cozy atmosphere of the Gambrel Barn at Country Heritage Park is what concertgoers will be treated to with the Milton Choristers' final concert of the season.

Cabaret, a Memorable Night of Broadway Classics, will be performed June 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the park, which is located at 8560 Tremaine Rd.

The evening will feature familiar selections from Mamma Mia, Les Miserables, Cats, West Side Story and other favourite shows in a casual, pub night format under the leadership of director Sonja van de Hoef.

Entertainment will also be provided by jazz trio Moment's Notice.

A silent auction, refreshments and a cash bar will round out the evening.

Advance ticket purchases are recommended, since this end-of-season concert is often sold-out.

Tickets cost $18 for adults, $15 for students and seniors and $10 for children. They're available at Coles bookstore in Milton Mall or by calling (905) 876-3203. For more information, visit www.miltonchoristers.com.
