Barbecue to benefit local women's shelter

A charity barbecue being held tomorrow will help abused women and children locally.

The barbecue — with plenty of food and fun for the kids — will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Co-operators office at 3420 Rebecca St., unit 24, in Oakville.

The proceeds will be donated to Halton Women's Place, which has shelters in Milton and Burlington that benefit more than 700 women and 400 kids every year.

"We want to make a difference in the community where we work and play," said Dave Pecharich, a Co-operators agent.

Halton Women's Place has been providing emergency crisis shelter and counseling services to abused women and children in Halton since 1980, with staff responding to more than 2,000 crises calls a year.

With 50 beds available on a daily basis, the two shelters operate at more than full capacity 30 per cent of the time.
