

Valuable jewelry snatched from Southcott Dr. home

A Southcott Drive home was broken into via a second-storey door Monday and jewelry worth $10,000 was stolen.

Police said that sometime between 11:45 a.m. and 12:45 p.m., the unknown suspect tried to enter the home through a ground level bedroom, as the screen had been removed. But apparently he wasn't able to get the window open.

The suspect then climbed on top of a barbecue to access a balcony. He cut the screen of a second floor door, reached inside and unlocked it, police said.

Drunk driving charges laid

A local motorist was charged with drunk driving last week.

Police said a vehicle was observed leaving the area of Kearns and Trudeau drives May 25 at about 8:30 p.m.

A 38-year-old Collis Court man has been charged with impaired driving and having over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood.

Home broken into

A Victoria Street home was broken into last week, with antique silverware stolen.

An unknown intruder entered the home May 25 sometime between 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. through an unlocked door. No one was home at the time.

Silverware from the 1700s was taken, as well as a smaller set about 30 years old. The value of the stolen goods hasn't yet been determined.

Police are investigating.

Car damaged, purse swiped

A window was smashed and a purse stolen from a car parked at Our Lady of Victory School Tuesday night.

The incident occurred sometime between 6:50 and 8 p.m. when the car's owner was inside the Commercial Street school. An unknown suspect smashed the passenger side front window with a rock and then grabbed the purse, which had been on the front seat.

The purse contained credit and bank cards, keys and about $40 in cash. The estimated value of the damage to the car is $300.

Driver leaves accident scene

Police are investigating a failure to remain after a vehicle was hit by another one last weekend.

The vehicle, a Chevrolet Venture, had been parked at the visitors lot at 650 Childs Dr. when it was hit by another vehicle, which fled, between 5 p.m. Saturday and 3 p.m. Sunday.

The vehicle suffered $1,500 in damage.

Crime Stoppers of Halton

Break-ins likely connected

Halton Regional Police are investigating two possibly related break-ins in Campbellville.

Sometime overnight May 18, suspects entered a CP rail maintenance shed on Guelph Junction Road and stole $2,300 worth of tools.

Around the same time, suspects forced their way into a residential garden shed on Guelph Junction Road and stole $500 worth of property.
