

Osteoporosis fundraiser at LCBO

Local residents who shop at the LCBO this month will also have a chance to donate to a good cause.

Donation boxes for Osteoporosis Canada will be displayed at the store's checkout counters until June 30.

Money raised at the 600 stores throughout Ontario will be used to promote awareness of osteoporosis, educate the public and health care professionals, promote prevention and support local self-help groups.

"We are pleased to partner with Osteoporosis Canada," said Philip J. Olsson, LCBO acting chair and CEO. "LCBO's customers have always responded generously to worthy causes and we thank them for providing a positive change in so many people's lives."

Osteoporosis Canada president and CEO Karen Ormerod encouraged all LCBO customers to consider donating money to the charity.

"We thank the LCBO, its employees and customers for providing us with this opportunity," she noted.

The organization is one of many charities that'll benefit from the LCBO's donation box program this year.
