OPSEU Local 234 "Red Devils" opened the scoring in the first half on a goal by Andrew Bacon. Jimmy Brussieres had a strong half in goal for the Red Devils, thwarting several Daniel's Asphalt attempts to level the score. Team OPSEU stuck again in the second half when Andrew Bacon netted his second. Down but not out, Daniel's Ashpalt mounted a comeback. After numerous attempts and with time running out, Adam Borrelli and Patrick Swica both found the back of the net behind Local 234's Nick Corbett. After a jittery few moments at the beginning of the game, Red Devil's Shimantoe Chowdhury settled down and began to enjoy his first ever game. Eric Scarffe, William Abdelnour and Mario D'Onofrio had strong games for OPSEU while Chris Ortiz, Glenn Yarnold and Zack Schomberg had notable outings for the visitors.

NGF Golf OPESEU Local 234

OPSEU Local 234 Red Devils kept GF f off the score sheet for most of the first half. Despite the lopsided score, clearly the "man-of-the-match" had to go to OPSEU's keeper, Jimmy Bussieres, as he was called upon time and time again, making several huge saves to continuously frustrate the NGF Golf attack. The score could have easily gone into double digits were it not for his stellar performance. Eventually finding the back of the net for NGF Golf were Alejandro Vanoy and Adriane Loor with a goal apiece and Etoban Acosta and Thomas Thibault who netted two each for the visiting side. Playing hard right till the end for the home team were the exhausted squad of Nick Corbett, Mario D'Onofrio, Shimantoe Chowdhury, Andrew Bacon, William Abdelnour, Brandon Baha, Matthew Miller and Jeff Thompson
