Sr. Sox win ugly one in Brampton

Field conditions weren't exactly favourable for the Senior Red Sox Tuesday night, but the final verdict certainly was.

Playing on a rock-hard diamond in Brampton — one considered somewhat dangerous by many in the Central Ontario Baseball Association — Milton put an early stranglehold on the host Battlecats and eventually toppled them 15-10.

The high-scoring victory — highlighted by a first-inning grand slam by Kevin Comisky — pushed the Red Sox to 13-6 in league play.

Milton amassed 16 hits and left a dozen runners on base in an evening clash that included a dozen errors overall, mostly due to sharp direction changes on otherwise routine grounders.

Matt McCandless and Brent Teboekhorst belted out homers as well, while Kurt Mitchell had four hits.

Still stationed in second in COBA's Andrews Division, Milton will look to keep its winning ways going this weekend at the London Tournament.
