

Duo golden at Canada Cup

International competition awaits wrestlers

Kevin Iwasa-Madge

Alan Moffat

A pair of local wrestlers delivered golden tune-ups to international competition last weekend.

Battling on mighty familiar ground in Guelph, Kevin Iwasa-Madge and Alan Moffat — both part of E.C. Drury's OFSAA championship team this past season — took top honours at the Pre-Junior Canada Cup.

Each won three straight matches to finish first.

Making a triumphant return from an ankle injury that had sidelined him for three weeks, Iwasa-Madge turned back all challengers in the 54-kg. division — adding to the gold he secured this spring at the national team trials in Edmonton.

He opened last weekend's tournament with a decision over the OFSAA silver medalist and punctuated his title run with a first-round pin-fall.

Equally impressive in the 58-kg. class, Moffat — this year's OFSAA champ and a two-time provincial medalist — relied heavily on his defensive prowess to reign supreme.

This recently-fortified aspect of his wrestling paid particularly high dividends in the final, when he held a top Western Canadian opponent and member of the national cadet team to just a single point in winning 1-0, 2-1.

Both grapplers spent this past week at the national training camp in Guelph before heading off to international events.

Moffat will be part of the Team Ontario contingent that will compete at the Commonwealth Youth Championships in Glasgow, Scotland this weekend and follow that up with next week's Scotland Open.

A member of the national cadet squad, Iwasa-Madge will spend a week in Cuba competing in a series of dual meets and training with top Cuban youth teams.

Milton juniors holding tryouts

Recently taken over by former NHL goalie Rick Heinz, Milton's Jr. A hockey club will be holding tryouts for the 2006/07 season next July 23.

The early one-day auditions will begin at 10 a.m. at Milton Sports Centre.

All players not currently signed to other teams are invited out, and are asked to bring proper letters of permission to skate.

Those interested are asked to call either Keith Pandovski at (416) 823-2352 or Garry Earle at

(416) 505-7284.

Heinz, a Campbellville resident and operator of a North America-wide hockey school, said he's committed to giving local players more of a chance to player with their hometown junior team.

The local juniors also have a 'Name The Team' contest going on until the end of the month. Entries can be e-mailed to rick@rickheinz.com or faxed to (905) 693-0158.
