British cars on display at Kelso

British car enthusiasts are invited to rev their engines and drive on over to the Halton Region Museum Sunday.

From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., the museum — located at Kelso Conservation Area off Tremaine Road — will host a car display of the British Saloon Car Club of Canada.

British cars from the pre-war era to the present day will be showcased on the scenic museum grounds.

About 50 vehicles of various makes will be on display, including Wolseley, Riley, Hillman, Rover, Morris, Jaguar, Vauxhall, MG and Triumph.

The car club, which boasts about 550 members worldwide, was established in 1994 for those who are passionate about the lesser-known British cars.

"Every year we assemble a variety of unique and unusual cars for display," said Tony Fox of the British Saloon Car Club of Canada.

"This year's crowd-pleasers are two Rolls Royces, a 1978 drop-head Cornish and a 1953 Silver Dawn."

Entry to the show is free with admission to Kelso. Tours of the Halton Region Museum will also be available at no additional cost.

For more information, call Tony Fox at (905) 632-0479 or visit www.geocities.com/MotorCity/7967.
