Field hockey officials clinic starts tomorrow

There's a dire need for high school field hockey referees this fall, and with that in mind a two-day clinic is being held at Hamilton's Nick Mancini Centre.

The clinic will run from 6 to 9 p.m. tomorrow and Thursday, and those interested are asked to get in touch with Halton referee-in-chief Gayle Redshaw at (905) 335-3355 beforehand.

The high school field lacrosse season runs from mid-September to late October, with games throughout the region starting at about 3 or 3:30 p.m.

Viewing Saturday's game as a positive first step in the club's long development process, the new IceHawks' skipper was especially pleased with the fortified chemistry exhibited over the night before.

"We played more as a team tonight as opposed to individuals trying to do it all themselves," he added.

Vallorani scored in both games and finished the weekend with four points, while defenceman Jake DeJulio — picked up from the midget Toronto Red Wings — also stood out with a goal and three helpers.

Milton closed out the weekend a little short-staffed, as veteran Matt Binnington and rookie Dylan MacEachern — both forwards, acquired from the Bramalea Blues and minor midget North York Canadians respectively — earned suspensions for fighting in the final five minutes of play Friday.

Saturday's lineup was further thinned out when blueliner Jack Litton, formerly with the Burlington Eagles midgets, suffered a nasty cut and suspected concussion during a second-period collision.

Now a fifth-year veteran with the Raiders, Campbellville's Rob Sgarbossa scored in the first period and helped set up the eventual game winner in the initial battle of north Halton. Miltonian and fellow Jr. A seasoned forward Steve Ellison — now with Brampton — picked up an assist against his hometown club Friday.

The IceHawks continued a hectic 10-games-in-17-days start to the season last night in Hamilton, and have arguably their best shot at a win so far tomorrow in Buffalo. They return to Memorial Arena Friday to begin a home-and-home weekend against Mississauga. They close out the week at Port Credit Arena Saturday.
