Active seniors' centre volunteer named town's Senior of the Year

By Melanie Hennessey
CANADIAN CHAMPION STAFF

Local resident Edith Winney has been named the 2006 Senior of the Year for Milton.

Town council presented the award to the 82-year-old Monday night for her contributions to the community, particularly at the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre (MSAC).

"I'd like to thank everyone for the honour," Winney said of the recognition. "I'm really humbled."

Town Community Program Coordinator Janet Davidson outlined the volunteer work that earned Winney the title, like preparing weekly hot lunches and barbecues for those who stop by the MSAC, helping out with large-scale events and catering monthly to a group of seniors with the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. She's also a member of Allendale's ladies' auxiliary.

In addition to receiving the award, Winney was presented with a gift from the MSAC advisory board and a lifetime bus pass from the Town's transit committee.

This year marks the fourth year in a row a member of MSAC has been named the Senior of the Year.

The award is a Provincial initiative that was established to give each municipality in Ontario the opportunity to honour an outstanding local senior.

Recipients are those aged 65 or over who have enriched the social, cultural or civic life of the community without thought of personal or financial gain.
