

Reid wins round one

Veteran defenceman Elgin Reid and his Ottawa 67s secured their first win of the season on home ice Sunday afternoon, doing so at the expense of a fellow Miltonian.

In the first battle of the only two local OHLers, Reid's 67s scored three first period goals en route to downing rookie left winger Josh Brittain and the Kingston Frontenacs 4-1.

A nagging shoulder injury had kept the major-junior freshman out of action nine days earlier when the same two teams met in season-opening play in Kingston, where the hosts prevailed 9-5.

A co-captain with this year's 67s, Reid got into a first-period fight Sunday. He and Brittain have six more meetings this season, with the next coming October 20 in Ottawa.

AE atoms reach finals

Milton's AE atoms couldn't take advantage of a second chance, and had to settle for second best at the recent Orangeville Early Bird Tournament.

A championship rematch with the host Flyers held unfavourable results for the Winterhawks, who ran out of gas and surrendered three third-period goals en route to losing 4-1.

Alex Vos was the lone marksman in the finals, netting his third of the weekend to erase an early Orangeville lead. Assisting on the play was Conor Fisher.

A disappointing finish aside, Milton fared quite well at the early bird showcase with a win and two ties, the first of which came in the form of a 1-1 second-round stalemate with the Flyers.

The Winterhawks kicked things off with a 5-5 draw against the Burlington Eagles and capped round-robin play by toppling the Oakville Rangers 5-1.
