Two more chairs announced to lead CT scanner campaign

Two well-known Miltonians have volunteered to be chairs of a campaign with an ambitious goal — to bring a much-needed CT scanner to town.

Siblings Brent Richardson and Kim Mason will head the Milton District Hospital Foundation's (MDHF) Our Community Campaign, announced Mayor Gord Krantz, who's the campaign's honorary chair.

The trio will work closely together to encourage community involvement for the campaign.

"This CT scanner will ensure that the best medical care is available for Milton and area residents," Krantz said, adding he looks forward to working with Richardson and Mason, who both grew up in Milton and have strong ties to the community and Milton District Hospital.

Mason is the regional vice-president of RBC Royal Bank, Halton region, and has been a member of the MDHF's board of directors since 2002, currently serving as its president.

Richardson is general manager of Richardson Chevrolet Ltd.

"Kim and Brent have always been supportive of the Milton District Hospital Foundation and our numerous campaigns over the years," said Donna McLaughlin, MDHF's director of development.

About $3.5 million is required to bring the scanner to Milton District Hospital. The scanner campaign has been gearing up for almost a year and will be launching its public phase later this year.
