Foster families needed for future guide dogs

Dog Guides Canada is currently in need of foster families to raise puppies that'll be future guide dogs.

Those interested would be asked to housetrain the puppies, teach them manners and basic obedience and socialize them in places like offices, shopping malls and public transit.

Food is provided courtesy of Nestle Purina Pet Care and veterinary care is covered by the Lions

Foundation of Canada clinics.

Foster families must be available to attend puppy classes in Oakville and Breslau every four to six weeks throughout the one-year commitment period.

For more information call (905) 842-2891, e-mail puppyprogram@dogguides.com or visit www.dogguides.com.
