Wide variety of donations coming in for ill-stricken baby girl and her family

• from HUGE on page A5

The event will include a deejay, raffles, prizes and food.

Attendees are invited to wear a costume, with a prize being given out for the best one.

"With all that's going on, they need as much (help) as they can get," said Toni Griffin, vice-president of the club.

Tickets cost $10 in advance and $15 at the door for the event, which is limited to people 19 years and older.

Money raised will go to Holly's trust fund. For tickets or more information, call Christine at (905) 875-3360 or Toni at (905) 864-6666.

Greg Ollerenshaw, who founded the Leslie Wells Slo-Pitch Tournament along with his brother, Mark, said some money remained from what was raised at the August charity tournament. When committee members caught wind of Holly's story, it just made sense to give $3,000 — the cost of their trip to Calgary — to the family.

"It just totally fits with the things we like to do," Ollerenshaw said. "What the tournament was designed to do is help locals who have come across bad fortune."

He and his brother don't want to take credit for the donation, though.

"The participants (of the tournament) make all this happen. We just divvy up the money," Ollerenshaw said.

It's clear Miltonians want to help in any way they can. McLauchlen received a number of e-mails from people wanting to help with the couple's wedding next month, including a professional wedding decorator.

Leanne Travassos offered her services as a special event and portrait photographer for free.

"I was reading the article about Holly and her family, and my heart broke with what they are dealing with," Travassos told The Champion.

Although McLauchlen and Taylor are getting married in Cuba and couldn't use the services offered, they were touched nonetheless.

Other offers included tickets to a fundraising dinner/dance for a fun night out, legal consulting, and a family photo shoot.

Local country singer Alysha Brooke, who has performed for numerous charity events, offered to sing at any fundraiser the family plans.

And one Milton resident — who didn't identify himself to The Champion — dropped off a beautiful painting he did from the photo that appeared in last week's paper of Holly and her mother.

McLauchlen said it's hard to find words that properly express their gratitude.

"I'd like to extend a huge thank you," she said. "I don't even know what to say."

Donations to Holly's trust fund can be made at any CIBC in Canada. The account number is 00162-010-57-09512.
