

Another heritage home to move

Another historic home in Milton will soon be relocated to make way for more development.

The house, located near the southeast corner of Derry and Tremaine roads, will be moved to accommodate a Mattamy Homes' subdivision that'll contain 2,000-plus homes.

For the time being, the house is being relocated on the same property until a permanent location is found, said Town Director of Planning and Development Mel Iovio.

He noted that since the development boom started in Milton, at least seven historic homes have been relocated and preserved — something that Heritage Milton, a Town committee, has played a role in.

Most recently, an old stone home that was on the property being developed at the corner of Steeles Avenue and Thompson Road was dismantled and moved to a nearby rural location, where it will be rebuilt.

Crossroads shopping centre expanding

An expansion of the Milton Crossroads shopping centre has been given the go-ahead.

Town council approved an application to extend First Gulf Capital Corporation's big-box development, located at the corner of James Snow Parkway and Steeles Avenue, at its meeting Monday night.

The company plans to build up to 120,000 square feet worth of retail and commercial outlets on a Steeles Avenue property that's currently home to the Region's public works yard.

This will include a restaurant, bank, three freestanding retail buildings and a multi-unit retail commercial building.

Council also endorsed a zoning bylaw amendment to make way for a financial office and drive-through service facility on the property that's being developed at the corner of Thompson Road and Maple Avenue by Rio-Can Real Estate Investment Trust.
