GO making improvements

GO Transit is currently implementing a number of service enhancements that'll benefit local riders.

Among the improvements is a new layover facility that's being constructed east of Milton to provide capacity for additional and longer trains. It's expected to be done by next July.

In addition, modifications to the GO stations on the Milton corridor will lengthen existing platforms to accommodate the length of the new 12-car GO trains and associated work will enhance platform service.

"As Halton continues to grow, so does the need for a safe, accessible and affordable public transit system that can meet the needs of our community," said Halton Regional Chairman Joyce Savoline, who has also been a member of GO Transit's board of directors since 1994.

GO's multi-year expansion program is funded by the Province, federal government and GTA municipalities.

Candidate holds meeting

Local residents will have a chance to chat with Ward 1 candidate Mike Cluett at a meet and greet he's hosting Thursday evening.

The session will start at 7 p.m. at Café Deda, located in the plaza at the corner of Derry Road and Trudeau Drive.

Cluett is contending with incumbents Rick Day and Brian Penman and newcomers Eugene Cummins and Greg Nelson for a Ward 1 seat at town council.

Police auction tomorrow

Halton Region Police is once again hosting an auction of assorted unclaimed items.

The auction will take place tomorrow at police headquarters, 1151 Bronte Rd., in Oakville.

Viewing and registration will take place from 8 to 9:30 a.m., with the auction starting at 9:30 a.m.

Up for bid will be more than 200 bicycles and a large quantity of new clothing and other unclaimed articles.

Cash or cheque with identification will be accepted.
