

Time to vote — who's your pick for mayor?

Gord Krantz

Biography: Krantz was first elected as a councillor in 1965 and became mayor in 1980 — a position he's held ever since. He's a retired firefighter and entrepreneur who worked in the oil sales business.

Platform:

- Continue to implement Milton's strategic and Destiny Milton plans
- Work with the Province to improve Milton District Hospital and health care
- Also work with the Province for provision of adequate educational facilities
- Maintain a balanced lifestyle for Milton in areas such as residential, industrial and commercial growth.

Gerry Marsh

Biography: Marsh is running for council for the first time. He has worked for an information technology products and services company for more than three decades.

Platform:

- Have effective, controlled management of growth
- Promote Milton's interests at the Region
- Maintain the desirable charm of Milton's urban/rural mix and sense of community
- Implement a simple and workable process to give Milton residents a voice and keep them informed.

Al Volpe

Biography: Volpe is also seeking a spot on council for the first time. He's an associate with RE/Max About Town Realty and has been involved in the real estate business for the past two decades.

Platform:

- Accelerate the construction of infrastructure
- Encourage the private sector to build affordable homes
- Have ongoing dialogue with developers to make clear the density levels and type of development Milton wants
- Work to keep the tax rates within the rate of inflation, locally and at the Region.

Contact: (905) 864-1835 and volpe4mayor@yahoo.ca.
